Dear Shareholders,

From the very beginning, our success has been founded on staying true to our core values - always putting our guests first, pursuing operational excellence, and focusing on creating unparalleled hotels and services that have made India proud. This year, despite a slow economy and numerous challenges faced by the hospitality industry, we continued to build on these hallmarks. This is because we believe that hospitality is not a short-term game but a long-term commitment.

For the last few years, the hospitality industry has witnessed an unprecedented financial crisis. When the hotel industry was performing well, many companies started investing in Hotels. However, post the Lehman crisis and the Mumbai terror attacks, while the ARR's have substantially declined, the occupancies have come down as demand has not caught up with the supply. This has seriously affected the profitability of hotels. Further, most of these hotels were built with substantial debt and the interest cost is mounting due to high interest rates. The debt repayment is getting affected due to lower profitability and higher interest rates. Added to this, the lenders are even charging penal interest rates. The Hotel industry needs support in terms of lower interest rates and repayment term of 25 years, for fresh loans as well as for refinancing the standard loans, non-performing loans and the loans acquired by Asset Reconstruction Companies. If this relief is extended by the Ministry of Finance, Government of India, and the Reserve Bank of India (RBI), then there would be an investment climate for investment in the additional 180,000 rooms which are required to be set up if the target of 12 million Foreign Tourist Arrivals (FTAs) in the next five years is to be achieved (from the present 7.20 million.) Most importantly, employment in the Tourism Sector will grow to 87 million as compared to the current level of 53 million. The Sector is already the single largest employment generator at 9.2 percent of the total workforce in the country.

While the Government's decision to open up tourism in India in a big way by extending visa-on-arrival to 140 countries in phases has been a very welcome move, unfortunately, none of the requests made were included in the Union Budget.

The Hotel industry was expecting a growth based budget to help set the industry on an upward trajectory. The industry's recommendations on several critical fronts, such as, removal of Service Tax imposed by the Central Government have not found favour. Several High Courts across the country have pronounced the levy of Service Tax as illegal and unconstitutional. Both, the Central and the State Government charges it on the same base item, whether it is room charges or food and beverage charges. As it is, with the increase of Service Tax to 14 percent, and several states like Delhi and Tamil Nadu still following the inequitable practice of charging a 15 percent Luxury Tax on the Published Tariff and not the Actual Rate, the combined rate of taxation on rooms alone exceeds 29 percent, one of the highest in the world. It is hoped that the proposed Goods and Service Tax (GST), which is slated to go into effect on April 1, 2016, will keep the total tax rate including VAT, Service Tax and Luxury Tax for hotels at eight percent, in order to enable the hotels in India to compete with other destinations, such as Malaysia, Indonesia, Sri Lanka and China, whose incidence of GST tax averages only seven percent.

Additionally, the Foreign Trade Policy announced recently by the Directorate General of Foreign Trade (DGFT) in April 2015 was a real disappointment as the entitlement of 10 percent of the net foreign exchange earnings, which was being granted all these years, has been reduced to three percent without ascribing any reason. Further, the condition for availment of the Export Promotion Capital Goods Scheme (EPCG) licenses, that only the foreign exchange earnings in excess of the average of the last three years qualify for meeting the export obligations of six times of the duty amount saved within six years, has led to a very serious situation as hotels have not been able to fulfill their export obligations. Thus, applications for the EPCG scheme have almost come to zero, to the great detriment of the hotel industry. If hotels are forced to import at full duty, it is bound to make their services and products uncompetitive.

As a result of these factors, the continued oversupply of rooms, and the slow economic recovery, the outlook for the Indian Hotel Industry is expected to remain subdued in the short term. However, should the Government implement the aforesaid relief measures and execute the various policy initiatives it has announced, it is bound to trigger higher GDP growth, increased foreign investment and put the hospitality industry on the road to recovery.

Executing Our Asset-light Strategy

I am pleased to inform you that our hotels and resorts continue to gain recognition from some of the most prestigious publications on travel and luxury in the world. The Leela Palace New Delhi, which has become the top performing hotel in the capital city, was named among the World's Top 100 Hotels by Robb Report – USA. The Leela Palace Udaipur was named the Best Destination Spa by discerning readers of Condé Nast Traveller and Travel + Leisure India & South Asia; and The Leela Kovalam was voted the Best Hotel in the country for the fourth year in a row by the esteemed readers of Lonely Planet.

Strengthened by these accolades, we have embarked on aggressive growth following an asset light strategy by executing Management Contracts for The Leela as well as The Leela Palace and The Leela Residences Brand. We plan to rapidly expand our footprint in India and other markets overseas. In December 2014, we signed a Management Contract for The Leela Kathmandu in the presence of the Hon'ble Prime Minister of Nepal. This is first in a series of three hotels across Nepal, which shall include Pokhara and Lumbini (birthplace of Lord Buddha) – all of which are part of the Groups' plans to pave a luxury Buddhist trail across Nepal and India. New properties which are currently under development, include, The Leela and The Leela Residences on a 125 acres township – Bhartiya City - near the Bangalore International Airport. The development has a Leela Hotel with 256 rooms, a Convention Center, and 150 Leela Residences. These Leela Residences will provide all the luxury services that The Leela is acclaimed for, within the privacy of their homes. Additionally, projects under development include Jaipur, Agra, Chandigarh, Lucknow, as well as hotels in select overseas destinations. Hence, a total of 980 Hotel Rooms and 450 Serviced Residences will be added in the next four years, without any investment by your Company.

To sum up, with the economy on a high growth trajectory, we expect a better performance this year, especially in hotels located in the business destinations. We are focused on reducing our debt burden and driving growth while maintaining our operational excellence. We are ever mindful that all of these efforts are dedicated to increasing value for our shareholders, and ensuring an early turnaround in the Company's position.

For the outstanding comments received of guest experiences, I thank our extraordinary associates who make the mission of The Leela their own. I would like to thank you, all our Shareholders, Board Members, Lenders, The Airport Authority of India, The Ministry of Tourism, Government of India, and Tourism Departments of the various State Governments for their wholehearted support.
