5. Members are requested to avoid being accompanied by non-members and / or children.
6. Members are requested to be in their seats at the meeting hall before the scheduled time of commencement of the Annual General Meeting to avoid interruptions in the proceedings.
7. Subject to the provisions of Section 206-A of the Companies Act, 1956, the dividend, if declared at the AGM, will be paid to those members entitled thereto (pro-rata basis on the date and amount paid-up) whose names appear in the Register of Members of the Bank at the closing hours of 29th April 2000 since 30th April 2000 and 1st May 2000 are holidays (Register of Members and Share Transfer Books are being closed from 2nd May 2000 to 29th May 2000 - both days inclusive). The Dividend is tax free at the hands of the shareholders.
8. Arrangements have been made to remit the Dividend through ECS to the shareholders who have opted for such mode of payment and furnished all the relevant / valid information. Any other shareholder interested in ECS mode of receipt of dividend for the year 2000 - 2001 onwards may write to the Company Secretary, The Vysa Bank Limited for further information.
9. As regards beneficial owners having shares in demat mode, they will be entitled for dividend if their names appear in the list to be provided to the Bank by National Securities Depository Limited (NSDL) / Central Depository Services (India) Limited (CDSL) as at the end of the day (EOD) on 29th April 2000 (since 30th April 2000 and 1st May 2000 are holidays).
10. Transfers for physical shares received during the period of book closure shall be considered only after reopening of the books and accordingly share transfers received during book closure period shall not be considered for dividend declared, if any.
11. Members are advised to furnish details of their Bank Account, if not already furnished, to enable the Bank to mention such account number in the dividend warrants, which will avoid fraudulent encashment.
12. In terms of the amended provisions of Section 205A of the Companies Act, 1956, the amount of unclaimed / unpaid dividend will be transferred to the fund created by the Central Government for this purpose under Section 205C of the Companies Act, 1956, if the Dividend Warrants are not presented for payment within seven years from the date of issue. Hence, the members who have not presented their dividend warrants for payment for the years 1995-1996, 1996-1997, 1997-1998 and 1998-1999 are requested to send them to the Registered Office of the Bank for revalidation to enable encashment at any of our Branches. No claim will be entertained by the Bank or the Fund after the expiry of seven years.

The Vysya Bank Limited

13. The Bank is initiating steps to forfeit the shares on which call money and interest thereon is due since December 1996. Hence, the shareholders who could not pay their dues in spite of extension given from time to time (the last extension being up to 31st March 2000) are advised to make arrangements for immediate payment to avoid forfeiture.
14. The members are requested to notify the changes, if any, in their address immediately to the Bank giving full address in block letters with PIN Code of the respective post office.
15. Members are requested to quote their Registered Folio number in their correspondence. Those Shareholders who have dematerialised their shares are requested to quote their Client ID No. and DP ID No. in their correspondence.
16. The practice of distributing copies of the Annual Report at Annual General Meeting has been discontinued in view of the high cost of paper and printing. The members, therefore, are requested to bring their copy of the Annual Report to the meeting.
17. The Bank has entered into an agreement with NSDL and CDSL to provide the investors a facility to hold the shares of the Bank in electronic form, instead of holding physical share certificates. SEBI has included the Shares of the Bank in the List of Companies whose Shares are to be compulsorily traded by all types of investors in Demat mode with effect from 21st March 2000.

The Bank is also offering demat services as Depository Participant of NSDL in the name and style of "Vys-DP E-Locker Account".

The Shareholders are advised to contact for more details about Vys-DP E-Locker Account facility being offered by the Bank at the designated Branches as under:

1. Bangalore: Bangalore Stock Exchange Extension Counter, St. Mark's Road, Kempegowda Road, Malleswaram, Jayanagar, VET Extn. Counter, J.P. Nagar, Ulsoor, Srinivasanagar, Vijayanagar, V.V.Puram, Sadashivanagar and Kasturba Road.
2. Chickmagalur
3. Davangere
4. Hyderabad - Abid Road, Chikkadpalli & S.P. Road.
5. Guntur (Arundalpet)
6. Kochi
7. Mangalore
8. Mumbai - Andheri (E), Dadar (E) & Nariman Point.
9. Mysore
10. Nagpur
11. Sirsi
12. Tumkur
13. Vijayawada (Governorpet)
14. Visakapatnam - Shantipuram & Dwarakanagar.
18. Depositories have devised systems to enable electronic transfer of dividend to the money accounts of Beneficial Owners. Some of the shareholders of the Bank may have given their bank account details in the DP account opening form while opening a depository account with participants of NSDL / CDSL. Such details will be used by the Bank for printing on Dividend

Warrants. This ensures that the Dividend Warrants, even if lost or stolen, cannot be used for any purpose other than for depositing the money in the account specified on the Dividend Warrant. This ensures safety for investors. However, if the Shareholders want to receive dividend in an account other than the one specified while opening the DP account, they may change / correct Bank account details with their Depository Participants. The Shareholders may also give MICR code of their Bank to their DP.
