Following sudden and unwarranted stoppage of working capital finance by Bank of India in October 1997, all the company's operations came to standstill.

In order to consolidate its business activities to limit further losses, the company is forced to liquidate part of its unproductive assets. The plant was sold by the bank to M/s East India Fisheries Pvt. Ltd. and the entire sale proceeds of Rs. 135 lakhs was appropriated by Bank of India towards its outstanding liability.

As the company is unable to secure any Working Capital finance from its bankers or any other sources the operations of hatchery as well as that of the farm were discontinued and the company is now exploring the possibility of sale of its assets.
