2. OPERATING RESULTS

The Gross Revenues of the Company have gone down from Rs. 565.64 lakhs to Rs. 336.14 lakhs, a reduction of 40 percent compared to last year. The reduction is mainly due to transfer of custodian clients to Deutsche Bank. The expenses also have been considerably reduced from Rs. 1001.04 lakhs to Rs. 470.74 lakhs. The reduction of 54 percent. The Company continues its drive of reduction in expenses. In view of completion of Deutsche Bank transaction, there will be considerable reduction in expenses.

3. ACTIVITIES

(a) Custodial Services

The Company has completed the transaction of transfer of custodian clients to Deutsche Bank. It took more time than expected in view of certain formalities to be completed by Deutsche Bank and various clients. The company has received expected consideration from Deutsche Bank.

(b) Registrar and Transfer Agency Services

The revenue from Registrar & Transfer activities have remained the same @ Rs. 132 lakhs as last year.

The electronic trading in equity has attracted more corporate clients. This has led to substantial reduction in manpower cost and increased profitability. The company is tying up with more corporate clients in view of SEBI's guidelines to have Depository and R & T activities under one roof.

(c) Depository

The revenue from Depository have gone up from Rs. 107 lakhs last year to Rs. 113 lakhs. The company is providing customer friendly environment and various value added services. In view of depressed market conditions, the company could not increase revenue during the year under review. In 2002-2003, during the current year, the volumes traded at the Stock Exchanges have increased and the number of transactions have also increased and with upward revision of rates, the company expects better revenues during the year 2002-2003.

OUTLOOK :

The exit from Custodial business and dematerialisation process covering all securities listed on exchanges have severely impacted the revenue of the company.

Commensurate with its core strength, the company is exploring other avenues like Business Process Outsourcing. The company expects to build reasonable business out of these activities.

4. DIVIDEND

In absence of profits, no dividend for the year ended 31st March, 2002 is proposed.

5. DIRECTORS

Mr. Homi F. Mehta, Mr. Pradeep R. Mafatlal and Mr. Sanjay Asher retire by rotation and being eligible offer for themselves for re-election.

6. AUDITORS REPORT

The observations made by the Auditors in their report are appropriately dealt with in the notes forming part of the accounts for the year, which are self-explanatory and hence do not require any further explanations.

7. AUDITORS

M/s. H.P. Vora & Co. Auditors of the Company retire from this office. Being eligible, they offer themselves for re-appointment. If appointed, they will hold office until the conclusion of the next Annual General Meeting.

Annual Report 2001-2002

AUDITORS' REPORT*TO THE MEMBERS OF IIT CORPORATE SERVICES LIMITED

We have audited the attached Balance Sheet of IIT Corporate Services Limited for the year ended 31st March, 2002 and also the annexed Profit and Loss Account for the year ended on that date. These financial statements are the responsibility of the Company's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audit.

We conducted our audit in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in India. Those Standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement. An audit includes examining on test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. An audit also includes assessing the accounting principles used and estimates made by the management, as well as evaluating the overall financial statement presentation. We believe that our audit provides a reasonable basis for our opinion.

1. As required by the Manufacturing and other Companies (Auditor's Report) Order 1988, issued by the Central Government of India in terms of Section 227 (4A) of the Companies Act, 1956 we give in the annexure, a statement of the matters specified in paragraph 4 & 5 of the said order.
2. Further to our comments in the annexure referred to in paragraph 1 above, we report that :
  - a) We have obtained all the information and explanations which to the best of our knowledge and belief were necessary for the purpose of our audit;
  - b) In our opinion, proper Books of Account as required by law have been kept by the Company so far as appears from our examination of the books;
  - c) The Balance Sheet and Profit and Loss Account dealt with by this report are in agreement with the Books of Account;
  - d) In our opinion, the Profit and Loss Account and Balance

Sheet comply, with the requirements of the Accounting Standards referred to in Sub-section (3C) of Section 211 of the Companies Act, 1956.

- e) On the basis of written representations received from the directors, as on 31st March, 2002, and taken on record by the Board of Directors, we report that none of the directors is disqualified as on 31st March, 2002 from being appointed as a director in terms of Clause (g) of sub-section (1) of section 274 of the Companies Act, 1956.
- f) In our opinion and to the best of our information and according to the explanations given to us, the said accounts together with the notes give the information required under Companies Act, 1956, in the manner so required and give a fair view in conformity with the accounting principles generally accepted in India :
  - i) In the case of the Balance Sheet, of the state of affairs of the Company as at 31st March, 2002; and
  - ii) In the case of the Profit and Loss Account, of the loss for the Company for the year ended on that date.

IIT Corporate Services Limited

ANNEXURE TO THE AUDITORS' REPORT

ANNEXURE REFERRED TO IN PARAGRAPH 1 OF THE REPORT OF THE AUDITORS TO THE MEMBERS OF IIT CORPORATE SERVICES LIMITED ON THE ACCOUNTS FOR THE YEAR ENDED 31ST MARCH, 2002

1. The Company has maintained proper records showing full particulars including quantitative details and situation of fixed assets. A physical verification of the assets has been conducted by the management during the year and no serious discrepancies were noticed on such verification.
2. None of the fixed assets have been revalued during the year.
3. In our opinion and according to the information and explanations given to us, the rate of interest and other terms and conditions of unsecured loans taken from companies listed in the register maintained under Section 301 of the Companies Act, 1956 are not prima facie prejudicial to the interest of the Company.
4. In our opinion and according to the information and explanations given to us, the rate of interest and other terms and conditions of unsecured loans granted to companies listed in the registers maintained under Section 301 and Section 370 (1-B) of the Companies Act, 1956 are not prima facie prejudicial to the interests of the Company.
5. The parties to whom loans or advances in the nature of loans have been given by the Company are repaying the principal amounts as stipulated and have also been regular in payment of interest.
6. In our opinion and according to the information and explanations given to us, there are adequate internal control procedures commensurate with the size of the Company and the nature of its business with regard to the purchase of plant and machinery, equipment and other assets.
7. In our opinion and according to information and explanations given to us, where transactions have been made with different parties, the transactions for such services made in pursuance of contracts or arrangements entered in the Register maintained under Section 301 of the Companies Act, 1956 and aggregating during the year to Rs.50,000 or more in respect of each party have been made at prices which are reasonable, having regard to the prevailing market prices for such services where such market prices are available or the prices at which transaction for similar services have been made with other parties.
8. The Company has not accepted any deposits from the public and hence provisions of Section 58A of the Companies Act, 1956 are not applicable.
9. In our opinion, the Company has an adequate internal audit system commensurate with the size and nature of its business.
10. Provident Fund and Employees State Insurance dues have been regularly deposited during the year with the appropriate authorities.
11. As explained to us, there are no undisputed amounts payable in respect of income-tax, sales tax and customs duty, which were outstanding as at 31st March, 2002 for a period of more than six months from the date they became payable.
12. According to the information and explanations given to us, no personal expenses of employees or directors have been charged to revenue account, other than those payable under contractual obligations or in accordance with generally accepted business practice.
13. The recording of receipts, issue and consumption of material and stores, and the allocation of the materials consumed to the relative jobs are not applicable to the company in view of the nature of its business.
14. In our opinion, the company does not have a system of allocating manhours utilised to the relative jobs. Except for allocating of labour to jobs, there is a reasonable system of authorisation at proper levels and an adequate system of internal control commensurate with the size of the company and the nature of its business.
15. According to the information and explanations given to us and having regard to the nature of the Company's business, clause (iii), (iv), (v), (vi), (x) (to the extent applicable for purchase of stores, raw materials including components and sale of goods), (xi) (to the extent applicable to purchase and sale of goods and materials), (xii), (xiv), (xvi), (xviii) (to the extent applicable to Wealth Tax and Excise Duty) and (xx) of paragraph 4(A) of the Order are not applicable to the Company.

SCHEDULE "K"*NOTES TO ACCOUNTS

- (1) Significant Accounting Policies
- (i) Basis of Accounting
The financial statements are prepared under historical cost convention on an accrual basis and are in accordance with the requirements of The Companies Act, 1956.
- (ii) The Company accounts for lease income arising out of lease agreements as per the terms of the agreement entered into with the lessees from time to time.
- (iii) Fixed Assets and Depreciation
All fixed assets are stated at cost of acquisition less accumulated depreciation.

The Company provides depreciation in the following manner :

Nature of Fixed Assets	Depreciation Method used	Depreciation rate adopted
(1) Fixed assets acquired for own use and immovable property:	Straight Line Method	As specified in Schedule XIV of the Companies Act, 1956 for the full year irrespective of the date of addition.
(2) Fixed Assets acquired and given on lease :	Straight Line Method	As specified in Schedule XIV of the Companies Act, 1956 for the full year irrespective of the date of addition.
(iv) Investments		Long term investments are stated at cost less any permanent diminution in value, if any.
(v) Retirement Benefits		Contributions for Provident Fund and Superannuation Fund (based on a percentage of salary) are made to the respective funds. Annual contribution for gratuity is based on the contribution made to The Life Insurance Corporation of India (LIC) and the adequacy of the accumulated funds available with the LIC has been confirmed on the basis of an actuarial valuation made as at the year end. A provision for encashment of the unavailed leave payable on retirement of employees, determined on an actuarial valuation as at the year end, has been made.
(vi) Miscellaneous Expenditure		represents payments made under Voluntary Retirement Scheme and are to be amortised over a period of five years from the date of payment.
(2) Due to need for complying with the requirement of maintaining high net worth (minimum Rs. 50 crores network) under SEBI (Custodian of Securities) Regulations, 1996 to continue the business of providing Custodial Services, the company is in process of effectively transferring the said business of Custodial Services by shifting its major custodian clients to a third party for an agreed compensation. During the year, a compensation amounting to Rs. 1.40 crores (net) (previous year 3.69 crores) has accrued to the Company on account of this arrangement. The Company is advised that such compensation, being in the nature of Capital Receipt, can be directly credited to Capital Reserve. Accordingly, the amount of such compensation has been directly credited to Capital Reserve Account.
(3) As the Company has substantial unabsorbed depreciation and carried forward losses under the Income Tax Act, 1961 and is unlikely to have taxable income in the foreseeable future, in accordance with the Accounting Standard 22 issued by The Institute of Chartered Accountants of India, the net deferred tax assets/liabilities has not been recognised.
(4) Since the Company is engaged solely in service activities, no separate information for segmentwise disclosure is required.
