MANAGEMENT DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS

INDUSTRY OVERVIEW: During the year under review, the Indian Capital Market continued to be robust with GDP Growth for the year at around 9%. The flow of foreign funds remained strong with FIIs investing aggressively during the year. The performance of the Indian corporate Sector has also been good. The Bombay Stock Exchange (BSE) Sensex registered a rise of 15% leading to 13072 points as on 31st March, 2007.

Indian Economy will continue to provide several attractive growth opportunities in view of the GDP growth forecasts of 7 to 8% in the years to come. The increased thrust on the Sectors like infrastructure, power, telecom etc will continue to provide excellent investment opportunities in the future.

In addition, the Service Sector which is growing rapidly and contributes substantially to GDP will provide many opportunities for financial services in India.

Rising inflation and interest rates are the key concerns. Some hardening of interest rates is inevitable inflation. The growth momentum in the stock market can be maintained if the Government can create encouraging climate for private investments in the country.
