FINANCIAL HIGHLIGHTS

The global financial crisis and the consequent bearish market conditions during the financial year 2008-09 have taken a severe toll on the business operations of the Indian corporate sector. Your Company, being no exception, could not remain insulated from the resulting fall-out of the financial turmoil. Hence, it has posted, on a consolidated basis, a lower gross income of Rs. 425.83 crore during the year under review as against Rs. 742.29 crore in the previous year and incurred a loss before tax of Rs. 78.48 crore as against profit before tax of Rs. 280.15 crore (before exceptional item) earned during the previous year.

As a matter of abundant caution and to factor in the possibility that the Indian capital markets may continue to remain bearish, your Company and its subsidiaries have made a provision for diminution in the value of shares in listed companies held as long term investments. The amount of loss incurred, on a consolidated basis, as stated above is after considering such provision for diminution in the value of shares aggregating Rs. 136.72 crore.

On a standalone basis, your Company earned a lower gross income of Rs. 24.54 crore during the year under review as against Rs. 36.70 crore in the previous year and earned a profit before tax of Rs. 13.15 crore as against profit before tax of Rs. 28.77 crore (before exceptional item) earned during previous year. The net worth of your Company at the year end stands at Rs. 1,646.37 crore which translates to a book value of Rs. 21.96 per share.

SHARE CAPITAL

Consequent upon the approval of Members at the previous Annual General Meeting, the equity shares of the face value of Rs. 10/- each in the share capital of your Company were sub-divided into 10 equity shares of the face value of Re. 1/- each; and fully paid-up bonus shares were issued in the ratio of 3 equity shares for every 2 equity shares held by the Members. The record date for the above corporate actions by your Company was fixed as September 15, 2008.

To reflect the change in face value of the equity shares due to sub-division and to facilitate the issue of additional equity shares resulting from the bonus issue, the Authorised Share Capital of your Company was increased from Rs. 50 crore to Rs. 100 crore consisting of 100 crore equity shares of face value of Re. 1/- each. The paid-up capital of your Company increased from Rs. 29.98 crore to Rs. 74.97 crore due to the issue of bonus equity shares after the forfeiture of 8,700 partly paid-up equity shares in respect of which the calls were in arrears.

The liquidity in the shares of your Company on the Stock Exchanges has increased considerably subsequent to the sub-division and issue of bonus equity shares. It has also helped your Company in widening its shareholder base which is evident from the fact that the number of shareholders has increased to 15,416 as on March 31, 2009 as compared to 7,375 as on March 31, 2008.

EMPLOYEE STOCK OPTION SCHEME

Your Company has instituted an Employee Stock Option Scheme (ESOS) to reward and retain the key talent within your Company and its subsidiary(ies). The ESOS is framed and adopted by the Compensation Committee of the Board of your Company. A total of 445,500 stock options were granted at an exercise price of Rs. 1,370/- per option to the employees/Directors of your Company and its subsidiary(ies) under the ESOS of your Company. The vesting schedule of these options is in three equal tranches at the end of third, fourth and fifth year from the date of their grant.

Consequent upon the sub-division of equity shares and the issue of bonus shares, the Compensation Committee, at its meeting held on October 27, 2008, made the proportionate adjustment to the number of options granted and their exercise price. After the said adjustment, the number of adjusted options are 11,137,500 and the adjusted exercise price is Rs. 54.80 per option. The details of ESOS as stipulated under Clause 12.1 of SEBI (Employee Stock Option Scheme and Employee Stock Purchase Scheme) Guidelines, 1999 are given in Annexure I to this Report.
