Message from the Chairman

Dear Shareholders,

I would like to start with a deep and heartfelt but positive thought for each of you, your families and your friends. Covid-19 has struck each of us and our families with vulnerability and separation. For those who have a loved one in a hospital or retirement home, there is additional anxiety and distress of not being able to take care for them personally. For many among us, we also worry about the coming days: how will we succeed in overcoming this virus and at what cost?

However, as always, in these unprecedented circumstances, devotion to others, compassion and altruism become evident in a remarkable and admirable way. Front-line healthcare professionals demonstrate for us, every day, the meaning of the Hippocratic Oath and all that it entails. They have our heartfelt thanks! This crisis also shows us the real values humanity needs: protection of life, health, solidarity and the ties that unite us.

This is also true for the John Cockerill Group, which has been operating for several months, in China, and more recently in Europe, in America and also in India, in a restricted way, with empty offices and contact reduced to a minimum. And yet we continued to operate at the service of our clients. Innovative projects and collaboration still continue thanks to technology; friendly and social relationships are organized, no longer centered around the coffee machine but virtually. The John Cockerill team spirit is always present.

In the meantime, the return to economic normality is likely to be a slow and bumpy process. The rupture in the labor market and ongoing social distancing will weigh heavily on consumer spending post-crisis, while firms will be very cautious on capital spending. Official forecasts predict a 'technical' pick-up in global GDP growth in 2021, but pre-virus levels of GDP are unlikely to be reached until mid-2022 at the very earliest. This is despite massive policy stimulus.

And while 2019 will be remembered as a difficult year for the Indian economy, the expectations in 2020 are not much brighter. In late May the Reserve Bank of India (RBI) trimmed India's growth forecast for FY21 as the coronavirus pandemic and the nationwide lockdown has disrupted economic activities and severely impacted revenues. The GDP growth in 2020-21 outlook is highly uncertain, but is expected to remain in the negative territory with a recovery in economic activity expected to begin in Q3 and gain momentum in Q4 as supply lines are gradually restored to normalcy and demand gradually revives.

For us this means that we must navigate by sight, and take difficult decisions, which will certainly touch and have an impact on many units of our company, our Sector Industry and the entire Group. These measures are necessary to deal with the crisis we are facing, as well as the expected post-crisis challenges.

We must think and reflect on how the company will be when we emerge from this crisis. Our strategy will need to be adjusted, opportunities will be created and we will have to be agile enough to seize them.

Our Group has a long history, made up of high points, discoveries and collective achievements, but also difficult periods during wars and economic downturns. Each time the Group has transformed itself and emerged stronger and more united. This is because our Group has always been able to adjust to the needs of its time and increasingly diversified its activities, not only geographically but also in terms of products and markets. A diversification that allows us to withstand more difficult periods, and more particularly, it will help us to absorb the impact of a crisis like the current COVID-19 pandemic.

2019 was, however, a rich and complex year for the Company. With numerous customer markets already in a downward cycle, our company still lived up to its commitments in many regards. As such, we continued the progress towards our mid-term objectives. Safety, efficient use of resources, reduction in greenhouse gases, sustainable solutions, and diversity are all areas in which our ambitions and objectives have been reaffirmed with determination.

Also in 2019, inspired by the visionary spirit of our founder, our Group reconnected with its roots and became John Cockerill again. The adopted fresh perspective, centered on the client and in the best interest of the Group, enabled the alignment to our Group's vision, strategy and objectives, resulting in an organization and leadership team that is more than ever battle-ready to face the complex and ever faster changing economic context, and last but not least, helped it tackle the current pandemic and this period of crisis.

In this context I am delighted to share with you, that on June 16th, 2020, our company has obtained the official approval by the Registrar of Companies, Mumbai of the State of Maharashtra to rename CMI FPE Limited into John Cockerill India Limited.

This is a major milestone for our company, allowing our clients to reap the many benefits of the global John Cockerill brand and perfectly illustrating our Group's growing ambition on the Indian sub-continent, also and maybe especially, in the post-Covid-19 era.

Adherence, cooperation and respect for commitments are the glue that holds us together. The creation of a new team spirit around a common project with an organization and a discipline around specific objectives and mandates for each of our activities is the synthesis, and the declared goal in the weeks, months and years to come.

2019 also opened a new chapter in the story of our company. Vivek Bhide, our company's new Managing Director, has been writing its first pages, bringing a fresh viewpoint to a comprehensive review of our structure, strategy, culture and sustainability program. Vivek currently works with the entire management team to unveil our company's purpose – the why that unites us all and gives us a shared direction: Enable opportunities. At scale. To meet the needs of our time. By being more sustainable. More responsible. More profitable. More human.

And our current reality calls us to do precisely this, especially now. On the behalf of the Board of Directors, I would like to thank Vivek for his commitment, and the strength and serenity that he has demonstrated throughout the current crisis.

It is obvious that since the beginning of the year the world has changed. Our company cannot remain indifferent to this upheaval which will have heavy consequences not only for our employees and their families, but also our clients, our company and the entire Group.

It should be mentioned at this point that our company's senior management has decided to take a 20 - 25% cut in their salaries to help the company through this severe, global economic downturn. They, just like most of the Group's worldwide management, have been rising to the challenge in these unprecedented times, and shown that our employees are at the heart of our Group's humanist values.

On behalf of the Board of Directors and myself, I would like to address my heartfelt thanks to all our company's employees, whatever their function or level, for their commitment, professionalism, solidarity and the support provided during the last few months. In the current situation, it is more than ever vital for a Group like ours being able to count on its employees.

And while we realize that the post-crisis period ahead will certainly be difficult, it is with this spirit, this solidarity and this determination that we will emerge from this stronger together.

Let me conclude with the following words: the coming months will not be easy for anyone! Know that we will find our way through them with clear-headedness, commitment and confidence!

My thoughts are with you and your families, and I thank you again for your confidence!

Yours sincerely,

João Felix Da Silva
