Annual Report 2007-2008

LETTER TO SHAREHOLDERS

Dear Shareholders,

I am glad to share my thoughts with you as the Managing Director of the company since April 01, 2008. Mr Sudhakar has passed on the baton to me and his contribution towards the growth of the company has been significant. He has taken a new profile where he will be guiding the company especially in the areas of Research and Development. Your company has now reached a size where it is perfectly positioned to have a launch pad for growth.

The past year has been a year of satisfaction because the company's bottom line has grown despite adverse effects of international price. Your company is now repositioning itself in terms of its strategy in approaching the market both domestically and internationally and despite all time high oil prices and consequential effects on the price of polymer, the first quarter of FY 08-09 is starting to show the results of the efforts that have been put in. Your company has been making inroads into the value added bag market such as conductive, clean room bags etc.,

JBL has recently been accredited with BRC certification for its Clean Room Facility which is set up primarily to cater to the food and pharmaceutical segment. This facility is of truly international standard and has been appreciated by all the customers. Truly, we are increasingly moving towards giving the customer value in terms of quality and service. Ultimately, every customer is looking at value for money.

Your company has finalized plans for setting up of a new facility at Kharagpur, West Midnapore district, West Bengal.

We appreciate the support that shareholders have been giving the company all these years. Jumbo Bag Limited has been the forerunner of this industry in India and is now poised for high levels of growth.
