NBFC SECTOR:

NBFCs have been regarded as important financial intermediaries particularly for the small-scale and retail sectors. There are two broad categories of NBFCs based on whether they accept public deposits, namely deposit taking NBFCs (NBFC-D) and non-deposit taking NBFCs (NBFC-ND). They play a very important role both from the macroeconomic perspective and the structure of the Indian financial system. NBFCs are preferred or even better alternatives to the conventional Banks for meeting various financial requirements of a business enterprise. In many cases, they offer quick and efficient services without making one to go through the maze of conventional banking formalities without compromising on credit quality.

Non-banking finance companies (NBFCs) continued to play a critical role in making financial services accessible to a wider set of India's population. Given their unique business models and, for many, their focus on operational excellence, NBFCs continue to strengthen their position in the financial services space in India.
