III. OTHER INFORMATION

1) Reasons of loss or inadequate profits:

After a severe financial setback for the business, KSL had to undergo a huge downward scaling of our business. This was a factor, which had been further perpetuated by the pessimistic external environment during 2001-2002. However, due to the longer-term optimism we had envisage, we focused on maintaining the critical business infrastructure and to restructure our business operations to suit to exploiting the upcoming opportunities. The company has been steadily repaying all its debt obligations and has now become almost debt free, despite the severe cash flow constraints. The Company has posted Profit for the year ended 31st March 2005.

KHANDWALA SECURITIES LIMITED

2) Steps taken or proposed to be taken for improvement:

Our goal is to rebuild our financial strength, branding and credibility to the levels we had witnessed in year 2000, through focus on our primary strength area of equity broking. Given the bouyant external environment, we are also seeking to benefit from Investment Banking and Investment Advisory related activities. On having taken necessary steps during the year, Company has converted it from loss making to Profit Making. For the year ended 31st March 2005, company has posted net Profit of Rs. 2.04 Crores compared to last year i.e. period ended 31st March, 2004 of Rs. 13.52 Crores loss.

accordance with the guidelines issued by SEBI for Preferential Issues, is kept open for inspection at the registered office of the Company between 10.30 a.m. to 12.30 p.m. on any working day excluding Saturday, Sunday and Public Holidays up to 31st August 2005.

Pursuant to Section 81 of the Companies Act 1956, whenever a Company increases its subscribed capital, it has to first offer the proposed securities to the existing shareholders / members otherwise a special resolution to that effect is passed in the General Meeting of the Company.

The consent of the Members is therefore sought to authorize the Board of Directors of the Company to offer, issue and allot these equity shares in the manner set out in the Special Resolution.

No Directors are interested / concerned in the resolution.

Your Directors recommend the Special Resolution set out in the Notice of this meeting for approval of the Members.

In respect of Item No. 12

The present overall borrowing limit of the Company is Rs. 80 crores under section 293(1)(d) of the Companies Act, 1956 as granted to the Board of Directors by the Company in the Extra Ordinary General Meeting held on 26th February 2000.

Sanction of the shareholders are sought to permit the Board to borrow moneys in excess of the Company's capital and free reserves up to Rs. 150 crores. This is permissible under section 293(1)(d) of the Companies Act, 1956 if the shareholders approve the same. Considering the present level of operations and projected level of business, there may be higher requirement of funds necessitating revision of overall borrowing limit.

Your Directors commend this resolution for adoption.

None of the Directors of the Company is concerned or interested in the resolution.
