Areas of Concern:

A. Exchange of Share Certificates:

It has been almost 6 years since the Company had recalled the old share certificates in the name of "VENUS COMPUTERS LIMITED" in order to exchange them with the new share certificates reflecting the changed name of the Company as "KIDUJA INDUSTRIES LIMITED".

However, till date more than 411 shareholders cumulatively holding close to 72,400 shares are yet to exchange their share certificates.

The old share certificates remain valid and good for delivery in the market. However, we would request the shareholders (in their own interest and to avoid confusion), to send us their old certificates in order to exchange them with the new ones. We shall try our utmost to mail the new certificates within 3 working days upon receipt of such requests. In cases of, hand delivery, we shall exchange the same across the counter at our head office.

B. Letters of Allotment of VENUS COMPUTERS LIMITED :

At the time of the IPO of the Company in 1986, letters of allotment were issued to the share allotees. Upon payment of the allotment money by them, the letters of allotment were to be exchanged with the fully paid up equity shares of VENUS COMPUTERS LIMITED.

We have more than 105 shareholders cumulatively holding close to18,500 shares who have not yet collected their share certificates in exchange of their original letters of allotment.

We would like once again to remind all such shareholders to kindly contact us with their respective letters of allotment of VENUS COMPUTERS LIMITED and collect their share certificates of KIDUJA INDUSTRIES LIMITED
