AUDITORS' REPORT

To The Members,

Libord Infotech Limited

(Formerly, Libord Finance Ltd)

We have audited the attached Balance Sheet of LIBORD INFOTECH LIMITED as at 31st March, 2000 and also the annexed Profit and Loss Account for the year ended on that date and report that:

1. As required by the Manufacturing and Other Companies (Auditor's Report) Order, 1988, issued by the Company Law Board in terms of Section 227 (4A) of the Companies Act, 1956 (hereinafter referred to as "the Act") and on the basis of such checks as we considered appropriate and according to the information and explanations given to us during the course of our audit, we give in the Annexure a statement on the matters specified in paragraphs 4 and 5 of the said Order, to the extent applicable to the company.
2. Further to our comments in the Annexure referred to in paragraph (1) above :
 - (a) We have obtained all the information and explanations which to the best of our knowledge and belief were necessary for the purposes of our audit;
 - (b) In our opinion, proper books of account as required by law have been kept by the Company so far as appears from our examination of those books;
 - (c) The Balance Sheet and Profit and Loss Account dealt with by this report are in agreement with the books of account;
 - (d) In our opinion, the Balance Sheet and Profit and Loss Account dealt with by this report have been prepared in compliance with the Accounting Standards as prescribed under the provisions of Section 211(3C) of the Act, to the extent applicable;
 - (e) i. No provision for the loss has been made in the accounts with regard to certain long overdue loans and advances aggregating to Rs. 22,95,095 (Net of provision) which in our opinion are doubtful of recovery (Refer Note no.2 in Schedule 19).

- ii. Further, we are unable to express our opinion as to the extent of recoverability of overdue loans and advances and debtors aggregating to Rs.2,32,91,032. It was explained that the Company has taken suitable measures to recover the said dues including filing of legal cases wherever considered appropriate and that, therefore, no provision is considered necessary at this stage. (Refer Note no.2 in Schedule 19).

- iii. We are also unable to express our opinion as to the extent of realisability of Investments of Rs.3,24,37,775. (Refer Note no.3 in Schedule 19).

- (f) We further report that, without considering the effect of para e(ii) and e(iii) above which is presently not determinable, had the observations made by us in para e(i) above been considered, the loss for the year would have been Rs.21,90,943 (as against the reported profit figure of Rs. 1,04,152), accumulated losses would have been Rs.1,18,73,941 (as against the reported figure of Rs.95,78,846) and net current assets would have been Rs.3,04,25,158 (as against the reported figure of Rs.3,27,20,253)
- (g) In our opinion and to the best of our information and according to the explanations given to us, the said accounts subject to what is stated in paragraph (f) above and read together with other notes appearing in Schedule 19 and elsewhere in the accounts, give the information required by the Act in the manner so required and give a true and fair view :
 - (i) in the case of the Balance Sheet, of the state of affairs of the Company as at 31st March, 2000 and;
 - (ii) In the case of the Profit and Loss Account, of the Profit of the Company for the year ended on that date.

ANNEXURE TO THE AUDITORS' REPORT

(Referred to in paragraph 1 of our report of even date)

1. The Company is under the process of updating its records showing full particulars including quantitative details and situation of fixed assets. All the fixed assets have been physically verified by the Management during the year at reasonable intervals. Discrepancies, if any, will be adjusted as and when the records are completed.
2. None of the fixed assets have been revalued during the year.
3. Physical verification has been conducted by the management at reasonable intervals in respect of stocks of shares, securities and currency notes.
4. The procedures followed by the management for physical verification of stocks are, in our opinion, reasonable and adequate in relation to the size of the Company and the nature of its business.
5. No discrepancies have been noticed on physical verification of stocks as compared to book records.
6. On the basis of our examination of stock records, we are of the opinion that the valuation of stocks is fair and proper in accordance with normally accepted accounting principles and is on the same basis as in preceding year.
7. The rates of interest and other terms and conditions of the unsecured loans taken/granted by the Company from/to the Companies listed in the register maintained under Section 301 of the Act and from the Company under the same management as defined under Section 370(1B) of the Act, is prima-facie, not prejudicial to the interest of the Company.
8. In respect of loans and advances in the nature of loans given to the parties and interest free loans given to employees, the parties are repaying the principal amount as stipulated and are also generally regular in payment of interest wherever applicable except in respect of overdue loans and advances aggregating to Rs.2,64,88,450. As explained, necessary steps have been taken by the company for the recovery of the said amount. However, in our opinion, concerted efforts in this direction are needed.
9. In our opinion and according to the information and explanations given to us, there are adequate internal control procedures commensurate with the size of the Company and the nature of its business for the purchase of equipment and other assets and for the sale of shares and securities.

10. The Company has during the year not entered into any transactions of purchase and sale of shares and securities in pursuance of contracts or arrangements required to be entered in the register maintained under Section 301 of the Act and aggregating to Rs.50,000 or more in respect of each party.
11. The Company has not accepted any deposit from the public within the meaning of Section 58A of the Act.
12. In our opinion, the internal audit system needs to be strengthened to make it commensurate with the size of the Company and the nature of its business.
13. As explained to us, the provisions of the Employees' Provident Fund and Miscellaneous Provisions Act, 1952 and the Employees' State Insurance Act, 1948 are not applicable to the Company.
14. There were no undisputed amounts payable in respect of Income tax, Wealth tax and Sales tax which have remained outstanding as at 31st March, 2000 for a period of more than six months from the date they became payable.
15. No personal expenses have been charged to revenue account other than those payable under contractual obligations or in accordance with generally accepted business practices.
16. The services rendered by the Company, as explained, do not require allocation of man-hours and materials. However, in respect of the same there exists a reasonable internal control system, commensurate with the size of the Company and the nature of its business.
17. The Company has kept proper records of its transactions in shares, securities and other investments and timely entries have been made therein. The shares, securities and other investments have been held by the company in its own name except to the extent of the exemption granted under Section 49 of the Act.
