YEAR UNDER REVIEW

The much trumpeted High Powered Settlement Advisory Committee is yet to see the light of the day after the resignation of the earlier nominee. PICUP & UPFC continued to remain intransigent seeking shelter behind the fig leaf of 'Guideline' & 'Metrics'. The signal being that the objective of revival & rehabilitation be damned before the altar of procedural labyrinth and red tape. The Central entities namely IDBI & SBI got more and more impatient almost at the end of their tether.

Such being the scenario at the beginning of this year we decided to bite the bullet of Individual Separate Settlements. First casualty of this decision was that the prospective Investor who had been waiting all these years reneged as no simultaneous back to back deal was happening. We decided to unlock the realty value of our land asset and generate enough funds to quench the negotiated OTS and also pay for the translocation of the plant & recommencement at a new site five kms down the road.

You would be happy to learn that during the course of this year we have been able to raise over three crores and have progressed towards partial settlement of OTS with the Institutions. God willing, by the end of the ensuing year we should be able to conclude the OTS payments and get down to the task of recommencement as per the revised Rehabilitation Scheme to be ratified post OTS.

OUTLOOK FOR THE CURRENT YEAR

India has become a huge player in the European & US PCB market during the last couple of years and today there are at least half a dozen units with 100 Crore plus turnover. So things augur well for our recommencement and the sooner it is the better.

DIVIDEND

In view of continued losses, no dividend payout for the year under review is being recommended.

LINAKS MICROELECTRONICS LIMITED

MANAGEMENT DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS REPORT

Industry structure & Development:

PCB industry consists of a handful of fair sized units and a number of MSME units which are mostly independent i.e. they are not part of any large conglomerate excepting a couple of units. In the last ten years the PCB scenario has gone a sea change and today India is second only to China for offshore sourcing of PCBs.

The units were historically promoted by technocrat entrepreneurs who in the old days received bank finance easily to promote industrial growth. Most of these units were set up in mid 80's and some of them have ceased to operate.

The survivors are those, which from time to time have been investing in technology and capacity. Initially the units were manufacturing simple single sided and double sided PCBs, but now there are units like AT&S who are making PCBs with 24 layers, buried vias, 4 mil line and spaces, etc. In the area of single sided PCBs we have some units that are now manufacturing flexible circuits.

Still on the whole industry is small because the actual demand for PCBs for manufacturing various types of Electronic equipment is still not very large in India, largely due to screw-driver-kit-assembly nature of the Indian equipment industry.

Opportunities & Threats: The industry has a domestic market, which initially was driven by telecommunication, but thanks to the lopsided custom tariff structure telecom manufacturing has shallowed out resulting in steep decline in PCB demand. Although the telecom infrastructure has grown by leaps and bounds but the downstream electronic component demand has not seen any growth since all fresh demand for equipment has been met largely through imports. Thus, now the domestic requirement is dependent on diverse segments like automation, control, instrumentation, metering and automotive. Automotive electronics, though a massive growth engine, can be volatile as it is subject to global business swings in this connected world of automotive business with only a handful of players. The gradual easing of custom duties is happening on account of India being a signatory to ITA. But this threat is also an opportunity because it applies to the developed countries too who are still levying duty on Indian imports.

In fact India with a low cost technical manpower enjoys tremendous advantage as an export-manufacturing base and especially to the high cost developed countries of Europe and the US. The industry and moreover Linaks should leverage this advantage. The company is already working towards it as they have a clutch of regular and reliable customers in Europe and they are also in the process of developing new ones in Eastern Europe and Americas.

Risks and Concerns: The major risk the industry faces is of over dependence on one market segment and the industry in India, Linaks included has faced this prospect because many a times their fortunes have fluctuated with those of the telecommunication sector.

Then there is always the over riding concern of fast technological obsolescence, which entails constant drain on resources at times impeding ones capability to service one's customers.

Overview: On the whole the industry has a lot of promise provided one is able to keep up with the demands of the market place.

Financial performance: The financial performance is directly related to the company's ability to remain competitive.

Resource & Liquidity: Resource position would remain comfortable if the company is able to trade profitably and liquidity is the direct function of the above.

The company has not been able to meet its financial goals because due to extraneous circumstances it went into losses and the rehabilitation package drawn under BIFR has also been buffeted by the uncertainty of the market place.

Outlook: The outlook is positive provided the Negotiated Settlement proposal is implemented and with it fresh funds are infused into the company.

Internal Control System: Your Company's management continuously reviews the internal control system and procedures to ensure orderly and efficient conduct of business. Your Company adheres to its written corporate policies with respect to all transactions, financial reporting and budgeting to ensure that all assets are safeguarded and protected against loss from unauthorised use or disposition, and that transactions are authorised, recorded and reported correctly.

The Company regularly conducts internal audits either through external or internal resources to monitor the effectiveness of internal control in the organisation.

Audits are finalised and conducted based on internal risk assessment. Significant findings are brought to the notice of the Audit Committee of the Board and corrective measures recommended for implementation. Reports of the internal auditor are also regularly reviewed by the Management and corrective action initiated to strengthen the controls and enhance the effectiveness of the existing systems.

Human Resources: The Company gives full and fair consideration to all employees with regard to their particular aptitudes and abilities. Training, career development and promotion are, as far as practicable, considered for all employees according to their skills and abilities. The Company consistently seeks to recruit, develop and employ throughout the organisation suitably qualified, capable and experienced people, irrespective of race, religion or sex. All decisions relating to employment practices are objective, free from bias and based solely upon work criteria and individual merit.

Our development, performance and rewards system is linked to organisation performance. The Company strives to provide excellent staff welfare measures to promote employee satisfaction and thereby attract and retain efficient manpower. Training needs are regularly identified and imparted with the help of both internal trainers and external professional faculties of repute. We have built team driven organisation where all employees work together to create our future.

Cautionary Statement: The statement made in this Report describing the Company's projections, expectations and estimations may be a forward looking statement within the meaning of applicable securities laws and regulations. These statements are based on certain assumptions and expectations of future events. Actual results may differ from those expressed or implied in this Report due to the influence of external and internal factors, which are beyond the control of the Company.
