2. BRIEF DESCRIPTION OF THE COMPANY'S WORKING DURING THE YEAR

The Directors concluded the last year's Director's Report with the words: In the coming year, we do not foresee any significant impediment in ramping up our sales to break-even level and beyond.

We could not have been more off the mark. Anything that could go wrong did go so in the year under review - Market, Payments, Legal Shocks on the Real Estate Development front, Employee churn and what have you.

The market of indigenously made LED lights, which had been reeling under severe headwinds from cheap Chinese imports suffered a double whammy by the virtual collapse of the payment cycle from the Municipalities and Town Areas causing a massive cash crunch. Municipal funds for LED switchover are heavily dependent on Government Subsidies under Govt. of India's SLNP initiative. But SLNP funds of late are virtually down to trickles. The demand kept going south, and payments went from bad to worse.

The mounting expenditure on multiple litigations on the salvaging of Real Estate venture further hamstrung our liquidity. The fraudulent behaviour of the Developer, who has since vanished, the tagging of our Corporate Guarantee in the suit filed by the Syndicate Bank in NCLT, our criminal case against the Developer's and the Bank, countersuit in the DRT and civil litigation have all taken their toll on the Company's ways and means. Being the main aggrieved party, we had banked heavily on the Legal route for resolution in a reasonable time. Looking back, all of it appears a distant dream. Here we are six months into the next year, and there is zero progress, who could have imagined the scourge of COVID 19.

With the COVID Lockdown from March 22, 2020, the way ahead is a virtual minefield, and what roadmap could you chart except to stay put in a state of suspended animation. Employee morale has taken a hit. Customers have gone in their shell and those who owe us money are in deep slumber and incommunicado.

The uncertainty is interminable. So much so that the misery of uncertainty is worse than the certainty of misery.

There is darkness all around, but in the midst of darkness, light persists. There is no slacking in our relentless pursuit to tide over the current gloom and doom, and team Linaks is gung-ho and even this would pass.
