Same passion. Renewed perspective.

Same Passion: We are Learning

Navigating our way through these unprecedented times, we are all learning. Because even amidst these uncertainties, lie opportunities. The challenges we face today are helping us develop the strength, needed for tomorrow. And we are all learning with the same passion that we started this journey with.

Renewed Perspective: The New Normal

The world is adapting to the new normal. Everyone is observing #SOCIALDISTANCING, so are we. But the distance is bringing us closer. It is strengthening our core as a team. As we move forward each day defying each obstacle, we are preparing to succeed with a renewed perspective. Our goals and vision are the same, our target is growth and success, but our approach this time, is different.

Covid-19 and Lumax DK Jain Group

Covid-19 changed life with the blink of an eye. As the fight against the virus intensifies each day, we are faced with the new reality of our existence. There are two ways of dealing with this. We can either lament over what was or simply shift focus to what we can be. At the D K Jain Group, we opted for the latter. We began adjusting to the new normal. Safety has always been our top priority. And so, protecting the health and safety of our employees and communities was the first thing we did. Here is how we swiftly adapted to the new normal:

- Promptly deployed our crisis management framework
- Activated plans to maintain business continuity to secure safe and reliable operations
- Abided by the Government's social distancing norms at workplace
- Added social distancing and sanitising as a part of our daily activities and routine
- From daily bus shuttles to canteen areas to workstations, we are now navigating the new normal

Today, more than 50% of employees are working remotely. And we will continue to operate with reinforced health, safety, and security protocols. We are committed to create a healthy and positive workplace culture while maintaining distance. We are determined to progress with same passion and renewed perspective.
