ANNEXURE TO THE NOTICE

EXPLANATORY STATEMENT (PURSUANT TO SECTION 173 (2) OF THE COMPANIES ACT, 1956)

ITEM NO. 5 :

With the introduction of the Depositories Act, 1996 and the introduction of the Depository system some of the provisions of the Companies Act, 1956 (the Act,) relating to the issue, holding, transfer, transmission of shares and other securities have been amended to facilitate the implementation of the new system. The Depository system of holding securities in an electronic form is a far safer and more convenient method for holding and trading in the securities of the Company. Your Company also proposes to join a Depository so that its securities can be dematerialised and it is therefore proposed that the Company's Articles of Association be suitably altered as set out in resolution no. 5 to enable it to dematerialise its securities and to spell out the right of the beneficial owner of the securities in such a system.

The Board recommends the resolution for acceptance by the members. None of the directors are interested in the resolution.

ITEM NO. 6 :

In terms of newly introduced sections 109A and 109B of the Companies Act, 1956 every holder of shares or debenture of a Company has been given the option to nominate a person to whom his shares or debentures shall vest in the event of his death.

In regard to unpaid/unclaimed dividends the relevant section 205A of the Companies Act, 1956 has been amended with effect from October 31 1998 to provide that any money transferred to the unpaid Dividend Account of the Company which remains unpaid for a period of seven years (instead of three years as hitherto) from the date of such transfer shall be transferred by the Company to a special fund called 'Investor Education and Protection Fund' established by the Central Government under new section 205C of the Act, (instead of to the General Revenue Account of the Government as earlier provided).

The Board recommends the resolution for acceptance by the members none of the Directors are interested in the resolution.

A copy of the Articles of the Article of Association of your Company together with the proposed alterations in respect of resolution no. 5 & 6 is available for inspection by the members of the Company at its Registered Office between the hours 2.00 P.M. and 3.00 P.M. on any working day of the Company.
