MANAGEMENT DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS

INTRODUCTION

Management Discussion and Analyses mainly comprises the statements which, inter alia involve predictions based on perceptions and may, therefore, be prove to risk and uncertainties. It is the sum total of the Company's expectations, beliefs, estimates and projections which may be forward looking within the meaning of applicable securities, laws and regulations. The actual results could differ materially from those expressed herein specifically or impliedly.

The important factors that could make difference to the Company's operations, changes in Government regulations, tax regimes, economic developments within India and countries in which the Company conducts business.

Overview of the Indian Economy

India is the fourth largest economy in the world after the European Union, United States of America and China in purchasing power parity terms, with an estimated Gross Domestic Product ("GDP") (purchasing power parity) of U.S.$ 4.46 trillion in 2011 (Source: CIA World Factbook 2011). India rebounded from the global financial crisis, largely because of strong fundamentals and robust banking policies, posting a GDP growth 7.8% in 2011.

Industry structure and developments

The securities market achieves one of the most important functions of channeling resources to productive resources or from less productive resources to more productive resources. Hence in the broader context the people who save and investors who invest focus more towards the economy's abilities to invest and save respectively. This enhances savings and investments in the economy, the two pillars for economic growth. The Indian Capital Market has come a long way in this process and with a stronger regulator it has been able to usher an era of a modern capital market regime. The past decade in many ways has been remarkable for securities market in India. It has grown exponentially as measured in terms of amount raised from the market, the number of listed stocks, market capitalisation, trading volumes and turnover on stock exchanges, and investor population. The market has witnessed fundamental institutional changes resulting in drastic reduction in transaction costs and significant improvements in efficiency, transparency and safety.

Indian Financial Services Sector

The financial sector in India is characterized by liberal and progressive policies, vibrant equity and debt markets and prudent banking norms. India's financial sector has been one of the fastest growing sectors in the economy. India has a financial system that is regulated by independent regulators in the sectors of banking, insurance, capital markets etc. India. The Indian financial sector attributes its growth to technology up gradation, consolidation of large broking houses, evolution of e-broking business, growth in retail segment, regulatory reforms, diversified asset instruments and foreign investment participation. There is huge growth potential in the Indian financial sector. Sectors such as banking, asset management and brokerage have been liberalized to allow private sector involvement, which has contributed to the development and modernization of the financial services sector. This is particularly evident in the nonbanking financial services sector, such as equities, derivatives and commodities brokerage, residential mortgage and insurance services, where new products and expanding delivery channels have helped these sectors achieve high growth rates.

The Indian economy is marching towards a high growth trajectory, albeit with certain impediments on the horizon. While the year began on an optimistic note, concerns on sustainability of the high growth phase had surfaced by the middle of Financial Year 2012-13. The Current Account Deficit (CAD) widened during 2012-13. The Indian rupee has also seen significant nominal and real depreciation during current fiscal. However, this trend has been in line with that of other emerging market currencies, which too depreciated significantly as US dollar appreciated with flight to safety amidst rising risk aversion. Stocks in India had a negative performance during this period, more particularly the month of October 2012. India Stock Market (SENSEX) declined 373 points or 2.00 percent during the last 30 days. Despite improvement in the overall optimism about the economy, the financial markets continued to witness high volatility primarily driven by the direction and magnitude of foreign capital flows and movement in industrial production and inflation.

Funds mobilisation through Public Offerings:

Indian companies, during the financial year 2012-13 mobilised a total of Rs 34,519 crore via public equity issues, including initial public offering (IPO) and Offer-for-Sale (OFS) mechanism on the stock exchanges. This fund-raising was 44 per cent higher than preceding year, when firms had mopped up Rs 23,989 crore. The last fiscal year, of course fell substantially short of Rs 52,219 crore, the highest amount that has ever been raised (in 2007-08). PSUs dominated the year with a total collection of Rs 23,857 crore or 69 percent of the overall amount. This included 33 IPOs and 35 OFS. Individually, 35 OFS raised Rs 28,024 crore (81 percent of the total funds garnered), compared to Rs 18,096 crore mobilised by three companies in the preceding year. Besides, companies have collectively raised Rs 6,495 crore via IPO or 19 percent of the total amount. Also, as many as 24 issues listed on the SME platforms of NSE/BSE collectively raising only Rs 206 crore.

The mobilisation in the year could have been higher but for the deferment of some large PSU offerings and continuing volatility in the secondary market. However this would have been much lower but for the 35 OFS done through stock exchange auction system, which only technically fall under the category of public issues.

Prospects and challenges

Your Company alongwith its subsidiary company – Mefcom Securities Limited, offer its clients an integrated financial services platform by offering various financial services and products covering equity broking, F & O, and portfolio advisory. It also proposes to offer trading in currency derivatives also in the next financial year. The volatility in the stock indices in the financial year under report represents both an opportunity and challenge for the company.

Being an investment banking company, your company seeks opportunities in the capital market activities in which most of our activities depend on is also influenced by global events and hence there is an amount of uncertainty in the near term outlook of the market.
