The Indian dairy industry is predominantly controlled by the unorganized sector.

Although milk production has grown at a fast pace during the last three decades, still there is lack of availability of milk in the lean season because of the increasing consumption of milk products in domestic market.

Large number of unproductive animals, low genetic potency, poor nutrition and lack of services are the main factors for the low productivity. The lack of proper infrastructure like cold storages and absence of a transparent milk pricing system are affecting retail consumption of milk and leading to escalating milk prices in the domestic market. The lack of fodder, resulting in low yield from cattle, is another problem affecting the sector.

As the world is getting integrated into one market, quality certification is becoming essential in the market.

The private sector can play a vital role in reducing the cost of milk production by employing advanced techniques to enhance productivity, providing breeding facilities for cattle and by developing processing and marketing infrastructure.
