We are happy to announce that as promised in the last year in order to speed up recovery cases, the Federation has sent a proposal to the Commissioner for Co-operation & Registrar, co-operative societies to allow us to appoint 6 officers who will be delegated powers under section 156 of the MCS Act 1960. and rule 107 of the M.C.S. rules 1961 by the Department for recovering dues from the defaulting members of co-operative housing societies. On receipt of approval from the Commissioner for co-operation after 1st April 2004, we expect there will be six recovery officers for the services of co-operative housing societies.

8 GUIDANCE TO OFFICE-BEARERS

Federation is aware of number of problems being faced by the office bearers while discharging duties for day to day working. Federation therefore imparts guidance to office bearers on various functions of the society on all working days. Chairman, Vice-Chairman, Hon. Secretary, Chief Executive Officer, and A.O.S., reply queries posed by office bearers, of members co-operative housing societies. Besides personal visit Federation also replies to letters received. On an average we get 30 letters every day. Federation also guides co-operative housing societies to reply Show Cause Notices issued by Assistant / Deputy Registrar, to the office bearers.

9 HOUSING TIMES

Housing Times is the main organ of Federation which canvases the functions of the Federation. Important information on MCS Act - 1960, Stamp Act, Important verdicts given by various courts on the issues of co-operative housing society, various Government notifications etc., are published in the Housing Times. Copies of Housing Times are issued free of cost to our member societies. Individuals professionals such as Advocates, Chartered Accountants, Architects, are subscribers for Housing Times by paying Rs. 150/- p.a. Housing Times reaches in the hands of over 14,000/- society readers. We are proud to state that ours is the only Housing Federation in India to publish magazine like Housing Times every month and send to its member societies and individual subscribers.

10. STATIONERY FOR CO-OPERATIVE HOUSING SOCIETIES

Every co-operative housing society is required to maintain certain registers/books of accounts as provided in the Byelaws. Federation keeps all such types of stationery on its sale counter required by co-operative Housing Societies. The stationery is printed as prescribed in byelaws. The quality of stationery is maintained with moderate sale price.

Sale counter is kept open from 11.00 a.m. to 5.00 p.m. continuously. Besides this sale counter we have opened extension sale counter at MHADA office which is kept opened on every working Monday & Tuesday.

Besides prescribed stationery as per Byelaws, we also keep on sale counter booklets which help co-operative housing societies, as guideline on various issues such as some of these are Transfer of Flats, How to Register Co-operative Housing Society, Society Registered What Next ? Recovery Procedure Under Section 101 of the MCS Act, Expulsion of Membership, Preservation of Records, etc.

Member co-operative housing societies are requested to purchase stationery booklets etc. from Federation office only from view point of authenticity. This stationery can be used any where in the State of Maharashtra. and to keep the booklets in their office for their references in case of need.

11. RENOVATION OF PREMISES

We are very happy to announce that the office premises of Federation at Vikas is under renovation. The office-bearers of societies will shortly find a modern office of Federation duly computerised with A/c. for their services. Inconvenience caused to the office bearers during renovation is regretted.

12. ENACTMENT OF CONVEYANCE

Federation is aware of difficulties being faced by number of co-operative housing societies due to non-co-operation of Builder/Developer in effecting conveyance of property in favour of co-operative housing society.

As a result of sturn efforts of Shri Raghuvir Samant Bill No. 47 was published in the Gazzettee. However, due to strong pressure from Builders lobby, the same is not yet reached on the floor. Federation will again try to place the bill before floor in order to get the same passed. In this regards the Federation has called certain information from the member societies regarding non-conveyance of the property in the name of the society and as such in response to that several societies have communicated their information to the Federation, This matter will be placed before the concerned authority / Government.

13. SEMINARS

The Housing Federation is now reaching the housing societies by conducting various seminars in Suburbans. Nearly 300 to 500 representatives attend these seminars to get their problems solved and seek guidance from an eminent leader Shri Raghuvir Samant. We also arrange for their convenience sale of books and other stationery required by co-operative housing societies, in these Seminars. Accordingly six halfday seminars were held during October 2003 to April 2004, in various suburbs such as Charkop (19th Oct. 2003), Borivali (23rd November 2003), Andheri (1st Feb. 2004), Dadar (28th March 2004), Mulund (4th April -2004) and Ghatkopar (11th April - 2004).

All these seminars were presided over by Shri Raghuvir Samant, Editor of Housing Times and were addressed amongst others by the Federation's Chairman, Advocate D. S. Vader, Ex-Chairman Shri. V. A. Sherlekar, Shri H. S. Gore etc and other expertise personalities also addressed seminars

All these seminars evoked good response from the member societies. The Proceeding of all these half day seminars are published in Housing Times.

Shri Raghuvir Samant also addressed some seminars as Chief Guest, organised by other institutions.

A delegation of the office-bearers of the Housing Federation headed by Chairman, Advocate D. S. Vader, met Shri Umeshchandra Sarangi, the Commissioner for co-operation & Registrar of Co-operative Societies, Maharashtra State, at his Pune office on 14th January 2004. to discuss problems of Housing Societies.

The delegation comprised of Shri Anil K. Jadhav, Vice Chairman, Shri Anil G. Sawant, Jt. Hon. Secretary, Shri B. V. Waidande, Hon. Treasurer and Shri M. S. Karajgikhed, Jt. Hon. Treasurer of the Federation.

15. NON OCCUPANCY CHARGES

Government of Maharashtra issued circular dt. 1-8-2001. restricting thereunder non-occupancy charges to the extent of 10% of service charges. Prior to 1-8-2001. the same was 100% of service charges. This resulted insentive to those members, who always go on subletting their flats. On the other hand co-operative housing societies income reduced considerably. Some co-operative housing societies challenged the said order and obtained ad-interim stay. However, the Government circular was not striked down being Federation is apex body of large number of member societies and in their interest the Federation filed a writ petition in the High Court vide No. 2245/2003, which was admitted and fixed for hearing in March 2004. The same is likely to come up for final disposal within a couple of months.

16. FINALISATION OF CHARTER OF DEMANDS

Earlier agreement executed on charter of demands of employees ended on 31-3-2003. Hence Union of Exploees filed fresh charter of demands with the Federation. After series of discussions/negotiations, the demands were finalised and settlement is signed on 5-3-2004.

17. WRITING OFF OLD BYELAWS AND STATIONERY

We have stock of old byelaws for flat owners and plot holders Marathi and English copies, old outdated forms and other stationery not in use but appear in stock worth Rs. 1,21,828.19 This old stationery will have to be written off. We have sought approval of Board and proposal is sent to Government Special Auditor for his certificate. If in the meanwhile certificate of the Government auditor is received, AGM is requested to approve write off proposal. However, if Auditor's Certificate is not received this proposal before AGM will be withdrawn.

18. STATUTARY AUDIT
