DIVIDEND

In view of absence of profits, the Board of Directors express their inability to recommend any dividend for the year under review.

OPERATIONS

The production of your company increased during the year under review. Although there was an improvement in value of goods sold, the production of 45.73 million PCS in 1997-98 to 61.74 million pcs. During the year 1998-99 the Company registered the sales of Rs 7.01 crores in the year 1998-99 as compared to Rs. 4.63 crores in 1997-98. This was due to change in product mix.

During the year 1998-99 the company had faced many problems in Bank operations, change in Government's Policies, existence of active grey market and unfavourable excise and customs duty structure besides slow down in market. All these factors alongwith very high financial cost effected the working results badly.

REVIVAL PROGRAMME

As per Financial Statement, the provisions of Sick Industrial Companies (Special Provisions) Act, 1985 are applicable and necessary action will be taken as per requirements of the Act.

INDUSTRIAL RELATIONS

Harmonious industrial relations climate continued to prevail during the year under review. However, on some occasions, the company's managerial staff has been threatened by local bad elements which affected the production of the company.
