OPERATIONAL RESULTS :

The year under report continued to be tough. The overall spinning industry passed through a very tight market condition where the demand for yarn was significantly low while the cost of production continued to show an upward trend. The liquidity crunch was felt and the operating margins were hardly existing. Company's continuous efforts to maintain the costs at a minimum possible level restricted the losses to a considerable extent.

CURRENT WORKING :

The situation for the current financial year is far from Satisfactory. The adversities are continuing to insist the restructuring of the overall operations / financial of the Company. The effective measures to restructure the activities, is under active consideration of the management. Due to fast Technology changes and absolescence, your Company deci to change the method of depreciation from S L M to W retrospectively. The networth of the Company having eroded, the Company is making reference to BIFR under the provisions of SICA, 1985. The effect is self explain in the notes to account.

AUDITOR'S REPORT :

The comments of Auditors are dealt with by the notes on accounts which are self explanatory and therefore do not call for any further comments.

DIRECTORS :

Mr. H J Jaju and Mr. K R Choksey directors of the Company retire by rotation. Mr K R Choksey desired not to seek reelection. The Directors would like to place on record its appreciation of the valuable services rendered by Mr K R Choksey during his association with the Company. Mr R L Kabra has expressed his desire to continue to render the professional services in capacity as a Management Consultant while vacating his position as a director.
