Iyer as required in terms of Clause 49 of the Listing Agreement is enclosed with the notice.

No Director of the Company is in any way concerned or interested in the proposed resolution.

ITEM NO: 8

Equity based compensation is considered to be an integral part of employee compensation across sectors which enables alignment of personal goals of the employees with organizational objectives by participating in ownership of the Company through stock option scheme. Your Company intends to use this Plan to attract and retain the talents in the organization. The Company views employee stock options as instruments that would enable the employees to share the value they create for the Company in the years to come.

Your Company appreciates the critical role its people play in the organizational growth. It strongly feels that the value created by its people should be shared with them. To promote the culture of employee ownership in the Company, approval of the Shareholders is being sought for the issue of stock options to the employees of the Company through the ESOP Trust.

The main features of the ESOP - 2011 are as under:

Total number of shares

No fresh Equity Shares of the Company shall be issued by the Company for the implementation of the ESOP – 2011. Equity Shares in the Company shall be acquired through the ESOP Trust by means of purchase from the secondary market. Such Equity Shares shall be transferred to the eligible employees of the Company in accordance with the provisions of the ESOP – 2011 and applicable laws and regulations.

The total number of Equity Shares that can be transferred to the participating employees over the term of the ESOP- 2011 shall not exceed 75 lakhs Equity Shares in the Company fully paid-up of face value of Rs. 10 each where one Stock Option shall be exercisable into one Equity Share in the Company

Eligible employees

The permanent employees including the Directors of the Company whether Whole-time or otherwise on the basis of their length of continuous employment with the Company, designation and/ or such other criteria shall be eligible to participate in the ESOP – 2011 from time to time as may be decided by a Committee of Directors comprising of majority of Independent Directors (“Remuneration / HR Sub Committee”).

Purpose of ESOP – 2011

ESOP – 2011 aims at rewarding and motivating the employees of the Company for their past association and performance as well as to motivate them to contribute to the corporate growth and profitability in future. To achieve the aforesaid objectives, the Company contemplates for grant of 'Loyalty Options' and 'Performance Options' respectively to reward:

- a) Loyalty of the employees who have served the Company for a continuous period of such years as shall be decided in this behalf.
- b) Certain class or classes of employees as decided in this behalf with an intention to retain, reward, and motivate to achieve individual and corporate performance.

Transferability of employee stock options

The stock options granted to an employee will not be transferable to any person and shall not be pledged, hypothecated, mortgaged or otherwise alienated in any manner. However, in the event of the death of an employee stock option holder while in employment, the right to exercise all the options granted to him till such date shall be transferred to his legal heirs or nominees.

Requirements of vesting and period of vesting

The stock options granted shall vest so long as the employee continues to be in the employment of the Company. In addition to this condition, the Remuneration / HR Sub Committee may lay down certain performance conditions on the achievement of which the granted options would vest, the detailed terms and conditions relating to such performance-based vesting, and the proportion in which the options granted would vest subject to the minimum vesting period of one year and maximum vesting period of five years.

Exercise price or pricing formula

The exercise price per option shall be the Market Price of an Equity Share in the Company as on date of grant.

Exercise period and the process of exercise

The exercise period would commence from the date of vesting and will expire on completion of 5 years from the date of vesting of options. The shares arising out of exercise of vested options would not be subject to any lock-in period after such exercise.

The options will be exercisable by the employees by a written application to the ESOP Trust to exercise the options in such manner, and on execution of such documents, as may be prescribed in this behalf from time to time.

The options will lapse if not exercised within the specified exercise period.

Purchase of shares by the Trust

The ESOP Trust shall purchase the Company's shares from the secondary market (on behalf of the beneficiary employees) based on the prevailing market price on the designated dates. The Trust shall endeavor to procure the necessary quantum of shares at the same market price but would be guided by market conditions as on the date of such purchase. The Company would provide interest free loan of Rs. 120 crores to ESOP Trust in one or more tranches to facilitate purchase and acquisition of equity shares from the secondary market which would be repayable to the Company by ESOP Trust during the term of ESOP-2011.

Appraisal process for determining the eligibility of the employees to ESOP

The options shall be granted to the employees as per performance appraisal system of the Company.

Maximum number of options to be issued per employee and in aggregate

The number of options that may be granted to any specific employee under the Scheme shall not exceed 0.10% of the issued capital (excluding outstanding warrants and conversions) of the Company at the time of grant of options. In aggregate, the options to be granted would not be more than 75 lakhs, each option convertible into one fully paid-up equity share having a face value of Rs. 10/-.

Disclosure and accounting policies

The Company shall comply with the disclosure and the accounting policies prescribed as per SEBI Guidelines.

Method of option valuation

To calculate the employee compensation cost, the Company shall use the Intrinsic Value Method for valuation of the options granted. The difference between the employee compensation cost so computed and the employee compensation cost that shall have been recognized if it had used the fair value of the options and the impact of this difference on profits and on EPS of the Company shall also be disclosed in the Directors' report.

Consent of the Members is being sought pursuant to the provisions of the Companies Act, 1956 and SEBI ESOP Guidelines applicable, if any.

None of the Directors of the Company are in any way concerned or interested in the resolution except to the extent of the securities that may be offered to them under the Plan.

ATTENTION MEMBERS
“GREEN INITIATIVE IN CORPORATE GOVERNANCE”

The Government of India, Ministry of Corporate Affairs (“Ministry”) has initiated a “Green Initiative in Corporate Governance” by allowing paperless compliances by Companies through electronic mode. In terms of the Circular No.17/2011 dated 21st April, 2011 and Circular No. 18/2011 dated 29th April, 2011 issued by the Ministry, Companies can now send notices / documents (including but not limited to notice calling Annual General Meeting, Audited Financial Statements, Directors’ Report, Auditors’ Report etc.) through electronic mode to its Members, whose e-mail addresses are registered with the Company or with the concerned Depository Participant which shall be deemed to be in compliance of the provisions of the Section 53 of the Companies Act, 1956, read with applicable provisions of the Information Technology Act, 2000. You would agree, it is a welcome move for the society at large as this will reduce paper consumption to a great extent and allow public at large to contribute towards a greener environment. This step will also help in speedy communication of the documents and also evade loss in postal transit. We are sure that you would appreciate the “Green Initiative” taken by the Ministry and hereby solicit your patronage and support in helping the Company to implement the e-governance initiatives of the Ministry. Considering the below mentioned advantages of registration for e-communication, this is also a golden opportunity for every Member of Petronet LNG Limited (the Company) to contribute towards Corporate Social Responsibility initiative provided you all register your e-mail id with the concerned Depository Participant to receive above-mentioned notices / documents through electronic mode and you are not required to re-register unless there is a change in your e-mail address.

ADVANTAGES OF REGISTERING FOR E-COMMUNICATION

- > Contribute towards Corporate Social Responsibility
- > Save costs on paper and on postage
- > Receive communication promptly
- > Reduce paper consumption and save trees
- > Eliminate wastage of paper
- > Avoid loss of document in postal transit

We find that either your e-mail id is not registered with the Depository Participant or you are holding shares in Physical form. We intend to send, through electronic mode, notices/ documents etc. of the Company, henceforth, all you have to do is to register your e-mail id with the concerned Depository Participant or update the same with the Company’s Registrar and Transfer Agent i.e. Karvy Computershare Private Limited (Transfer Agent), Plot No. 17 to 24, Vittal Rao Nagar, Madhapur, Hyderabad – 500081.
