Explanatory Statement pursuant to Section 102(1) of the Companies Act, 2013

Item-6: Employee Stock Option Scheme (ESOS):

To attract talented employees / Directors, it is necessary to provide incentive to the employees to remain with the company and to reward them with the opportunities to have a share in the success of the company. To achieve this objective, it is proposed to grant an option to the employees to subscribe to the shares of the company.

The SEBI Guidelines have provided a conducive environment for the implementation of an Employee Stock Option Scheme. The Company proposes to introduce the following Stock Option Scheme for the benefit of employees of the Company, its Directors, and such other persons / entities as may be prescribed by SEBI from time to time, and in accordance with the provisions of prevailing regulations.

Employee Stock Option Scheme

Under this scheme, employees will be granted an option to acquire a certain number of equity shares at a Price as mentioned hereinafter. The broad terms and conditions of the Scheme are as under:

The Company's Compensation Committee, which is a committee of the Board of Directors and consisting of a majority of independent Directors, will be responsible for administration and superintendence of the ESOS. The Compensation Committee will formulate the detailed terms and conditions of the ESOS; Compensation Committee will specify, inter alia, the following.

1. Quantum of options to be granted under the Scheme per employee.
2. Conditions under which options vested in employees may lapse in case of termination of employment for misconduct.
3. Time period within which an employee may exercise vested options in the event of termination or resignation.
4. The exercise period within which the employee should exercise the options and that option would lapse on failure to exercise the options within the exercise period.
5. Rights of employees to exercise all the vested options at one time or at various points of time.
6. Procedure for making a fair and reasonable adjustment to the number of options and to the exercise period, in case of rights issues, bonus issues, other corporate actions, or otherwise.
7. Lock-in period for the shares issued pursuant to exercise of the options, if any.
8. Any other related or incidental matters.

The following is the explanatory statement, which sets out the various disclosures as required by clause 6 of the SEBI Guidelines.

The salient features of the Scheme are as under:

1. The total number of options to be granted:

The total number of options to be granted under this scheme cannot exceed 50,00,000 equity shares of the issued equity share capital of the Company as on date or such additional quantity as may be required on account of Corporate Action. The options which lapse/expire or are forfeited will be available for grant to the eligible employees.

One option would entitle the holders of the options a right to apply for one equity share of face value of ₹ 10/- each and / or equity linked instrument including any depository receipt entitling for one equity share of ₹ 10/- each of the company, as may be decided by the Board. The option shall not be pledged, hypothecated, mortgaged or otherwise alienated in any other manner. The Committee has power to choose the quantum of options for each of the plans.

2. Identification of classes of employees entitled to participate in the ESOS

Employees entitled to participate in the ESOS are:

- a. Persons as are in the permanent employment of the company in such grade and with such experience / association with the company, as may be decided by the board / committee.
- b. Directors (Including Whole Time Directors) of the company at any time.
- c. Such other persons, as may, from time to time, be allowed under prevailing laws and regulations and as may be approved by the board for this purpose.

Above persons are referred herein collectively as the "Eligible Employees"

An employee who is a promoter or belongs to promoter group or a director who either by himself or through his relative or through any Body Corporate, directly or indirectly, holds more than 10 percent of the outstanding equity shares of the company at the time of granting of option, shall not be eligible to participate in ESOS.

3. Requirements of vesting, period of vesting and maximum period of vesting

There shall be a minimum period of one year between the grant of options and vesting of options. The Vesting of options may be spread over a period of six years from the date of grant. The committee is empowered to implement and decide the vesting schedule to suit the needs of the organization.

The options may vest in tranches subject to the terms and conditions as may be stipulated by the Committee, which may include satisfactory performance of the Employee/Directors and their continued employment with the company, as the case may be, unless such employment is discontinued on account of death, permanent/total disability or on retirement.

If the employee/Director voluntarily terminates employment with the Company, the options to the extent not vested shall lapse/expire and be forfeited forthwith. However, this shall not be applicable to the employee/Director (including Whole Time Director) of the company who has resigned or who may resign from time to time to join in the subsidiary companies or as approved by the Committee.

4. Exercise price or pricing formula

The exercise price shall be closing Market Price before the Grant date, subject to a minimum price of par value.

5. Exercise period and the process of Exercise

The exercise period shall commence from the date of vesting, and will expire not later than six years from the date of first vesting. The options will be exercisable by the Eligible Employees by a written application to the Committee to exercise the options, in such manner, and on execution of such documents, in such manner, as may be prescribed by the Compensation Committee from time to time. The options will lapse if not exercised within the specified exercise period.

6. Process for determining the eligibility of employees to ESOS

The process for determining the eligibility criteria for the eligible employees will be specified by the Compensation committee, and will be based on, such criteria such as length of service, grade, performance, technical knowledge, leadership qualities, merit, contribution and conduct, future potential., etc., and such other factors as may be appropriate / decided by the Compensation Committee, in its discretion, from time to time.

7. Maximum number of options to be issued per employee and in aggregate

The maximum number of options granted per an eligible employee will not exceed one percent of the Shares of the Company in any financial year and shall not be more than 5% in aggregate to a single employee.

8. Disclosure and Accounting Policy

The company shall comply with the disclosure and accounting policies prescribed by securities and exchange board of India (SEBI) and any other appropriate authority, from time to time.

9. Method of Valuating the Options

The company will adopt the fair value method to value the options granted under the Scheme.

10. Disclosure in Director's Report

The Company calculates the Employee Compensation cost using the fair value of the Stock Options.

As the Scheme will entail further shares to be offered to persons other than existing shareholders of the company, consent of the members is sought pursuant to the provisions of Section 81(1A) and all other applicable provisions, if any, of the Companies Act, 1956 and as per the requirement of SEBI Guidelines.

The Options to be granted under the Plan shall not be treated as an offer or an invitation made to public for subscription in the securities of the company.

The Directors other than i) Promoter Director and (ii) those directors if any, holding directly or indirectly more than 10% of the outstanding equity shares of the company, namely, Sri D. Vijay Sen Reddy shall be deemed to be interested or concerned in passing of this resolution to the extent of benefit he may derive under the Scheme.

The Board accordingly recommends the resolution for approval of the members as a special resolution.
