Item No.10

The Articles of Association (“AoA”) of the Company as presently in force since incorporation in 1993 and modified from time to time. The existing AoA are based on the Companies Act, 1956 and several regulations in the existing AoA contain references to specific sections of the Companies Act, 1956 and some regulations in the existing AoA are no longer in conformity with the Act.

With the coming into force of the new Companies Act, 2013 several regulations of the existing AoA of the Company require alteration or deletions in several articles. Given this position, it is considered expedient to wholly replace the existing AoA by a new set of Articles.

The new AoA to be substituted in place of the existing AoA are based on Table “F” of the Act which sets out the model articles of association for a company limited by shares. Shareholder’s attention is invited to certain salient provisions in the new draft AoA of the Company viz:

- (a) Company’s lien now extends also to bonuses declared from time to time in respect of shares over which lien exists;
- (b) the nominee(s) of a deceased sole member are recognized as having title to the deceased’s interest in the shares;
- (c) new provisions regarding application of funds from reserve accounts when amounts in reserve accounts are to be capitalized;
- (d) new provisions relating to appointment of chief executive officer and chief financial officer, in addition to manager and company secretary;
- (e) existing articles have been streamlined and aligned with the Act;
- (f) the statutory provisions of the Act which permit a company to do some acts “If so authorized by its articles” of provisions which require a company to do acts in a prescribed manner “unless the articles otherwise provide” have been specifically included; and
- (g) provisions of the existing AoA which are already part of statute in the Act have not been reproduced in the new draft AoA as they would only lead to duplication – their non-inclusion makes the new AoA crisp, concise and clear and aids ease of reading and understanding.

The proposed new draft AoA is being uploaded on the Company’s website for perusal by the shareholders.
