The negative impact on business due to recession continues which is reflected in the revenues and loss for the year.

OUTLOOK

The Company puts in all out efforts to come out of the set backs and is optimistic to turn around the table in the years to come. The Company is continuously taking steps to reduce overheads, postpone/shelve expansion programmes. Your Company is optimistic that it will get over the difficult situation and show better results in the years to come.

CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

In accordance with Accounting Standard AS-21 your Directors provide the audited Consolidated Financial Statements in the Annual Report.

FIXED DEPOSITS

The Company had not accepted any fixed deposits during the year.

DIVIDEND

In view of the loss incurred the Board does not recommend any dividend for the financial year ended 31st March 2010.

DIRECTORS

During the year, Mr R Rengharajan, Director resigned from the Board. The Board places on record its grateful appreciation of the valuable services rendered by Mr R Rengharajan during his tenure of office as a Director.

Mr G Vekatarajulu, Director will retire by rotation at the ensuing Annual General Meeting and being eligible he offers himself for re-election.

Brief resume of Directors, nature of expertise and names of Companies in which they hold directorship and membership/chairmanship in Board/Committees as stipulated under Clause 49 of the Listing Agreement with the Stock Exchanges are provided in the Annexure to the Notice convening the Annual General Meeting.

Quintegra Solutions Limited

MANAGEMENT DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS REPORT

(Pursuant to Clause 49 of the Listing Agreement)

1. OVERVIEW

Quintegra Solutions Limited (Quintegra) is a leading IT services and consulting company delivering services through innovative and customized solutions. With over 16 years of experience, the Company provides services in a global delivery model consisting of customer relationship management offices and development centers spread across the world. Evolving core competence in all its line of activities, Quintegra provides a wide range of IT services to industries like financial services, manufacturing, education, healthcare and hi-technology. It delivers a full range of service offerings covering the software services spectrum of application development and maintenance, product services, testing and professional services. Over the years, the Company has built a reputation as the best-value services provider among its clients. Most importantly, Quintegra has built a fine track record of excellence to earn this distinction. With headquarters in Chennai - India, Quintegra operates across the globe with offices in USA, UK, Malaysia etc., The Company is SEI CMM Level 4 and ISO 27001:2005 certified.

2. INDUSTRY STRUCTURE AND DEVELOPMENTS

As per NASSCOM Strategic Review 2010, world-wide technology and related products and services spend is estimated to have crossed USD 1.5 trillion in 2009, a decline of 2.9% over 2008. Due to the global economic slowdown, considerable reductions were experienced in IT service spends across categories as global corporations cut back on discretionary spends and focused on leveraging IT spends to drive organisation-wide efficiencies, business transformation and adoption of new business models.

As per NASSCOM Strategic Review 2010, IT services spend is estimated to cross US $ 1.5 trillion in 2009, a decline of about 3% over last year. The economic slow down resulted in reductions in spending in the first half of 2009 and signs of pick up became visible in the second half. This reduction in spend was by means of either delaying the decisions or putting on hold some new IT projects. This led to both pricing and volume pressures for IT service providers. However, in the second half of 2009 as economic growth showed signs of revival many companies started focussing on process improvements, reducing cycle time, consolidating infrastructure and increasing speed to market. Globally, technology spending is expected to further increase in proportion with the speed of economic recovery. Information technology being an integral part of business operations is seen by companies as key for productivity improvement and business transformation. Global technology spend is expected to increase from USD 1.6 trillion in 2008 to USD 1.9 trillion by 2013 at a Compounded Annual Growth Rate (CAGR) of 3.5%.

Quintegra, being a part of this industry, is trying to exploit latest business and technology trends by adopting new strategies in order to provide improved and simplified solutions with increased process capabilities and additional value to its clients. In addition, Quintegra is focusing on customer satisfaction by closely interacting with the customers and narrowing the gaps between clients and the company. Quintegra also monitors the developments in the industry for continuous improvements and course corrections.

3. OPPORTUNITIES AND THREATS

Quintegra practice groups are centered on high growth areas like testing, SAP, Consulting, Infrastructure Management, BFSI, Healthcare, Education and Logistics which are ideal platforms to continue to create value for clients across the globe. Opportunities exist to address pain points of clients in the BFSI Sector who are looking to radical rebalancing of their IT portfolio. Along with services, Quintegra is also involved in developing a strong portfolio of enterprise management products in the growing areas of healthcare, education and logistics.

Advanced economies are projected to expand sluggishly in 2010, with the continuance of unemployment situation Annual growth in 2010 is projected to be about 1.25 percent, following a contraction of 3.5 percent in 2009. The shadows cast over IT fortunes on account of global financial meltdown have still not completely cleared even though 2009-10 showed signs of recovery as compared to the previous year. The investments made in acquisitions had not resulted in returns and growth as expected. With a slow economic recovery anticipated in the developed markets in 2010, there is a change in the contours of global business. However, Quintegra views the situation optimistically as an opportunity to re-think, re-prioritise, re-evaluate and re-align the Company's policies and work patterns.

5. OUTLOOK

In general, it is expected that the industry will operate conservatively, continuing to reduce headcounts and discretionary spending. Most industry are expecting new IT investment and project work to continue in recession while some others feel that technical spending will be vital in helping business to boost efficiency, save money and retain customers. Software companies in India are driving force in the economy of the nation which contributes nearly five percent in the GDP of the country. Quintegra is set to bring more focus on developing domain expertise, improving efficiency and productivity and customising their product to enhance client satisfaction. To perform better in the domestic sector, Quintegra is making sincere efforts to acknowledge and understand the requirements of Indian enterprises, evolve India-centric pricing models and demonstrate greater flexibility. The Company is adopting various measures to meet steep rise in operational cost and to remain alive during the current slow recovery phase. Cost reduction and effectiveness of product and services is expected to play a pivotal role in retaining existing business ventures.

6. RISKS AND CONCERNS

With a slow economic recovery anticipated in the developed markets in 2010, there is a change in the line of global business. The Company has to adapt to the changing environment in order to sustain its place. Even though efforts are taken to stay in place, various other factors make it difficult to cope with. To mention a few, the borrowed funds and its deployment in various operations of the Company becomes risky. Employees retention cost, attrition of skilled resources are causes of concern. High volatility of global currencies which are the main sources of Company's revenue enhances impact on financial risks - credit risk, currency risk and liquidity risk.
