MANAGEMENT DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS

(a) Industry Overview :

The Indian economy is expected to grow at 8.7% in 2007-2008 – the weakest pace since 2005 compared with the growth of 9.6% in 2006-07 and 9.4% in 2005-06. The slowdown in GDP is mainly due to slowdown in the manufacturing sector, which is expected to expand 9.4% this fiscal, compared with 11.82% in 2006-07. The Indian Textile Industry is 80% occupied with Apparel segment, the ratio will change towards more growth in Technical Textiles, automotives, Carpets and Home Textiles. Technical Textiles is one of the faster-growing sectors of the global Textile Industry. Technical Textiles is an emerging area for investment in India.

(b) Review of Operations :

During the year 2007-08 the Company achieved net sales of Rs. 4368.32 lacs and earned net profit of Rs. 93.53 Lacs compared to net sales of Rs. 4121.44 Lacs and net profit of Rs. 143.05 Lacs during the previous year. Profit decreased in compare to previous year but turnover of the company increases continuously it has been done due to increased in cost.

The company's prime goal is to enhance shareholder wealth by applying funds in the advanced technology at the most appropriate time .The Company is also making capital expenditure for capacity expansion and modernization. The company's gross block stood at Rs. 4016.17 lacs at March 31, 2008. The Company intends to continuously invest in production facilities to derive technological advancements, enhance capacities and reduced cost.

(c) Opportunities and Threats :

The abolition of quota has led to substantial growth in textile and garment exports. The domestic market are also expected to remain strong with rising demand. These factors provide tremendous opportunities for the Company.

Major threat comes mostly from low cost producers locally in overseas locations. However, the Company has been able to maintain its market share across various segments through value added and high quality products, combined with excellent services to its customers.

(d) Risk and Concerns :

The company has to manage Risk arising from product liability is protected through insurance policies or limited through contractual agreements wherever possible. Risk associated with protection of environment, safety of operations and health of people at work is monitored regularly with reference to statutory regulations prescribed by the government authorities.

(e) Financial risks:

Financial risk management is carried out by the treasury department under policies approved by the Board of Directors. Written policies for overall foreign exchange risk and investing excess liquidity are in place.

(f) FOREX Risk:

The company is exposed to forex risks arising from various currency exposures, primarily with respect to USD, GBP, Euro and Swiss Franc. The company has an appropriate policy in place and covers the risk partly through hedging by means of forward transactions.

(g) Interest risk:

Interest risk mainly arises from financial debt. The policy is to borrow in fixed rate instruments provided the risk of rising interest rates is seen to be material. Downside interest views allow for a lower fixed rate portion of interest bearing financial debt.

(h) Liquidity risk:

Sufficient and not excessive cash and marketable securities are kept and investment is made mainly in debt oriented mutual funds. Credit risk: Credit risk policy is in place to ensure that sale of products is made to customers after an appropriate credit limit allocation process.

(i) Outlook :

With growing aspiration of Indian consumers fuelled by rising income, higher affordability, country wide retail proliferation, spurt in rural demand and exponential growth in Tier II & Tier III towns we expect that cloth industry may show exciting growth in coming years. Indian & International players operating in India will target brand portfolio expansion & product expansion to take advantage of fast growing market.

With the positive changes in overall economy and consumer behaviour, outlook for your company is encouraging.

(j) Internal Control system :

The company has proper and adequate system of internal controls to ensure that all assets are safeguarded and protected against loss from unauthorised use or disposition and that transactions are authorised, recorded and reported correctly.

The company has effective systems in place for achieving efficiency in operations, optimum and effective utilization of resources, monitoring thereof and compliance with applicable laws.

(k) Human Resources :

The company firmly believes that intellectual capital and human resources is the backbone of the company's success.

The company is committed to provide development and training opportunities to employees to equip them with the best skill which enable them to adapt to contemporary technological advancements. Industrial relation during the year continues to be harmonious.

ACKNOWLEDGMENT

Your Directors take this opportunity to express their grateful appreciation for the willing assistance and co-operation received from the bankers, shareholders and the employees of the Company.
