These partnerships further helped us to widen the company's reach through long-term social development projects. The following are some of sustainable development projects which we are currently supporting:

- I Integrated Watershed Management Project is implemented in 12,000 hectares in Sagar and Vidisha districts of M.P. It provides sustainable livelihoods to the people residing in the watershed areas.
- I Wadi project in Andhra Pradesh and West Bengal, aims to enhance the socio-economic status of 2000 Scheduled Tribe (ST) families through our interventions in the areas like-Horticulture, Soil Conservation, Water Resource Development, Women Empowerment, Health Care and Training and Capacity Building of the beneficiaries.
- I Rural Mart in Narsaropeta, Guntur District to provide enabled environment to rural women to enhance their skills and knowledge for improved livelihoods and quality of life. At present rural mart is currently handling the work orders from various Government departments and the highest work order till date is ₹ 31.00 lakhs their socio economic status, household on farms and off farms livelihoods, allowing them to face production and market risk without falling back in poverty and distress.

Community Plantation

- I Another notable intervention in FY 2012-13 is Palavelli program in Podili mandal of Prakasham district. It is an innovative and impact oriented livelihood intervention model for rural women on agriculture allied activities. Ramky Foundation has provided the soft loans to women for buying high yield cattle. The loan repayment is an innovative process in which beneficiaries repay the loan in the form of milk. Every day beneficiary gives 2 liters milk in collection center. The amount collected through selling of milk is used by the organization to provide loan to other women in the villages. As such nearly 60 women have been benefited from the program till now and expected to reach more in near future. Besides, Ramky Foundation provides institutional support and capacity building to the women.

Thus, Ramky Foundation has moved towards a challenging measure of corporate responsibility, where results are measured not just by input but by its outcomes: the difference we make to the world and the contribution to alleviate certain deep rooted social problems. The emphasis on Corporate Responsibility as a focused activity embedding in to core business functions has enabled us to constantly explore for tools and competencies that not only leap forward our operations but also helps to long-term sustainability of our businesses.

Chairman's Message

Dear Shareholder,

Let me start by sharing my views on the challenges the infrastructure industry is facing today before penning various developments. The Indian macroeconomic environment has looked turbulent during the past year, consequent to a deceleration in global economic growth. India's GDP growth rate has slowed down to a decadal low, partly due to global factors, but more on account of slow reforms and delays in implementation of projects in the country.

Over the last quarter, the Government has taken various initiatives to boost development of infrastructure in the country. These include setting up of infrastructure targets for various sectors, putting in place an institutional mechanism to monitor and hasten the progress of PPP projects at the Central and state levels and facilitating land transfer between government agencies for PPP projects etc

However, the initiatives taken are not comprehensive and there are still multiple road blocks that adversely affect infrastructure development.

The year 2012-13 tested the toughness and the inherent potential of industry players, particularly in the construction and infrastructure space. Ramky Infra in its pioneering journey had to deal with an overall environment dominated by high interest rate, sluggish demand, liquidity issues and higher input costs. All these factors have exerted pressure on the operating margins.

Notwithstanding these headwinds, the company's order book position remained largely on track with closing order book of around ₹ 11,963 Crores. The company aims to position itself among the top five leading Engineering and Construction companies in India and will endeavour to achieve this objective by adopting global best practises in Corporate Governance and Project Management. The company will endeavour for superior engineering excellence, efficient procurement, timely delivery, risk management, resources optimization at all levels while creating a professionally managed environment and also by an inclusive approach of maximizing stakeholder's satisfaction.

It has become important to gear up and upgrade the Company's internal capabilities suitable to the external competition across its human, technical and capital resource base to ensure that corporate goals are accomplished. Ramky Infra's vision is to constantly strive towards sustainable development while contributing to India's growth and ensuring maximum satisfaction to all the customers at the same time.

At Ramky Infra, we endeavoured on a journey of growth and change that helped in transforming ourselves into a world class organization. To facilitate this growth plan and to make every employee cherish, Ramky Infra as their destination for employment as well as career growth, we have embarked on a journey aptly titled 'Operation Future Bright'. Under the banner 'Operation Future Bright', we implemented two Business Applications.

1. Employee management application - Human Resource Management Information System (HRMIS)
