c. Marketing and Market environment

Sugar industries is a seasonal industry. The production of sugar depends upon availability of sugarcane which is affected by weather of the particular place. The quality of soil deteriorates due to overuse of fertilizers and pesticides to increase sugarcane yield. The sugar sector in India goes through a phase of cyclicity, mainly on account of situations of high cane pricing which is under Govt. control. The Company has encouraged sowing of sugar beet in its area and has crushed 23,21,280 qtls. of sugar beet in addition to sugarcane.

d. Future Prospects including constraints affecting due to Government policies.

The sugar production of the country has gone to 246.03 lacs tons during current season. Due to improvement of market sentiments there are better lifting of sugar during current season. Government of India announced certain incentives for export of sugar upto 31st March, 2016, resulting into export of about 13.5 lacs tons of sugar by Sugar Mills. With the improvement of domestic market, it is expected that cane price payments to the cane growers will improve and cane arrear will come down substantially in future.

4. MATERIAL CHANGES AND COMMITMENTS

No material changes or commitments have occurred between the end of the financial year to which the financial statements relate and on the date of this report, affecting the financial position of the company.
