Sasken has always believed in looking for new, uncommon ways of doing things. In taking the path less trodden. Which, as so many great people have shown us, is the way to make history.

Inspiring figures like Ekalavya, King Ashoka, Tansen, Columbus, Emperor Shah Jahan and Sun Tzu, to name a few, possessed traits of single-mindedness, leadership, talent, perseverance, a passion for excellence and the spirit of winning. They sharpened and nurtured these traits and through them made a difference.

In the world of telecom Sasken too seeks to make a difference.

We concluded, the best way we can do that is by taking a leaf from great lives.

By getting inspired by these iconic figures. By following in their legendary footsteps. So we too encourage single-mindedness, leadership, talent, the ability to persevere, the pursuit of excellence and a winning spirit.

Because if we're going to make a difference what better way to do that than by emulating those who have made a difference.
