Add : Losses brought forward from previous year	(8177)	(3904)
Loss carried to balance sheet	(11957)	(8177)

DIVIDEND

Your Directors do not recommend any dividend for the year under review.

OPERATION

This industry is facing severe competition. Ceramic Crockery Industry, the main consumer of transfer sheets, is in great difficulty. Most of the Crockery units in India are in the small scale sector. They are now facing competition from the imported goods from Sri Lanka and other Far East countries. Similarly, transfer sheets are also being imported.

Sale of high-quality transfer sheets have been reduced. Your company decided to go in for severe cost reduction and use of local decal papers and colours which in recent years have reasonably improved and are now receiving consumer acceptance. With this, your company's sale have improved from 1.39 Lacs sheets to 2.22 Lacs sheets during the year under review. Apart from this, there has been no significant improvement in the market condition. This has resulted into a partial recovery.

MARKET AND FUTURE PROSPECTS

Your Company will be looking for further improvement and consolidation in the current year. As the institutional loans get repaid, interest burden will also reduce and with increased competitiveness, the Company's share of the market is also expected to get better from year to year.

AUDITOR'S REPORT

All the items on which comments have been made by the Auditors in their Report to the Shareholders are self explanatory, as explained by way of Notes to the Accounts.

DIRECTORS

In accordance with the provisions of the companies act 1956, Shri G. L. Sultania retires by rotation at the ensuing Annual General Meeting and offer himself for reappointment.

AUDITORS

M/s. D. K. Chhajer & Co., Chartered Accountants, Auditors of the company retire at the forthcoming Annual General Meeting and are eligible for reappointment.

Y2K

The Company has taken adequate and effective steps to be Y2K compliant by October, 1999 and is not likely to have any material financial impact.
