Therefore, your directors commend the resolutions for the approval of members as ordinary resolutions

None of the Directors other than the respective director in the respective resolution may be treated as interested or concerned in the proposed resolution.

Item No.9 Forfeiture of Shares.

The members aware that the Company has gone for public issue of 43,84,800 equity shares of Rs.10/- each for cash at par in the month of March 1996. As per the prospectus a sum of Rs.5/- is payable on application and another Rs.5/- on allotment/call. Since then, the company has sent several reminders to the allottees for payment of the allotment/call monies. As of 30th June 2005, shareholders holding 6,38,800 equity shares have failed to pay the allotment/call money. Therefore, the Board of Directors in their meeting held on 9th July 2005 has have passed resolution to forfeit the above said 6,38,800 partly paid equity shares. The Stock Exchange, Mumbai has been informed about forfeiture of these shares in accordance with the listing agreement.

The average market price of the shares of the company on the date of forfeiture is Rs. 70/- per share of Rs.10/- each fully paid. However, the Company has received enquiries from some persons/entities for purchase of the said shares around Rs.40/- per share. Since the shares of your Company:

- a) are not frequently traded on the stock exchanges till recently,
- b) the present net worth
- c) Capital expenditure requirements for the proposed activities etc.,

your Directors propose to accept the said offer at Rs.40/- per share including the allotment/call money. Since the negotiations are in early stages, your directors have constraints in giving the total disclosure of the probable purchasers of these shares. Even though it is with in the powers of the Board to allot the forfeited shares to such persons at such price as they may deem fit in the best interests of the company, the approval of the members is sought, in accordance with the corporate governance measures introduced by the stock exchanges/listing agreement.

Accordingly your directors commend the resolution for the approval of the resolution as a Special Resolution.

None of the Directors may be treated as interested or concerned in the resolution.

Item No.10: Issue of Further Equity Shares by way of Global Depository Receipts (GDR) etc.,:

The present Authorized Share Capital of the Company is Rs.7,00,00,000/- (Rupees Seven Crores only) divided into 70,00,000 (Seventy lakhs only) Equity Shares of Rs. 10/- (Rupees Ten only) each and the paid up capital is Rs.5,23,32,635/-. With the growing requirement of funds for meeting long term working capital requirements, for part-financing capital expenditure program, it is considered desirable to issue Global Depository Receipts and or such other instruments to rise a sum upto $ 10 million or its rupee equivalent as set out in the notice.

Accordingly, the directors commend for approval of the members the resolution as a Special Resolution.

None of the Directors of the Company may be treated as interested or concerned in the above resolution.

Item No.11: Preferential Issue of Shares

To fund the capital expenditure plans envisaged, it is proposed to issue, offer and allot not exceeding 2,50,000 (Two lakhs Fifty Thousand Only) equity shares of face value of Rs.10/- each or preferential basis at a price of Rs.75/- (Rupees Seventy Five Only) per share which is determined as per SEBI Guidelines from time to time and on the terms as may be decided by the Board of Directors of the Company.

As per Section 81 (1A) of the Companies Act 1956, approval of the shareholders in the general meeting is required for allotment of equity shares on preferential basis. Hence the resolution is placed before the shareholders. The Board commends the resolution for the approval of the members as a Special Resolution.

The required disclosures as per 13.1A of SEBI)Disclosures and Investor Protection Guidelines 2000 as amended from time to time are furnished as under :

- a) Objects of the issue through preferential offer: The objects of the proposed issue of equity shares is to augment resources for entry into biotechnology/Pharma research related activities and general corporate requirements.
