EXPLANATORY STATEMENT UNDER SECTION 173(2) OF THE COMPANIES ACT, 1956*ITEM NO.5

Some of the provisions of the Companies Act, 1956, have been amended to facilitate the introduction of Depository System consequent to the passing of the Depository System consequent to the passing of the Depositories Act, 1996. Securities and Exchange Board of India has notified that your Companies shares should be compulsorily traded in Dematerialised form with effect from 26.03.2001. The new automated system of holding and trading in the shares of the Company, side by side with the paper based system will necessitate certain alterations in the Articles of Association of the Company, especially in matters such as Register of Members to cover the Beneficial Owners as per the records of the Depository, fungibility of the shares held by Depository, transfer of shares held by depository etc. Appropriate alterations as set out in the Special Resolution in the notice are, accordingly, proposed for the approval of the shareholders.

It may be clarified that while additional facility as above could be provided within the new legal frame work, shareholders would be given an option to join this system. The existing provisions in respect of the shares held in the form of paper scrips will continue without any change.

It is, therefore, proposed to alter the Articles of Association of the Company, in certain respects, so that they conform to the amended provisions of the Companies Act, 1956 and the Depositories Act, 1996.

The Board recommends the passing of the Special Resolution contained in item No. 5 of the accompanying notice.

None of the Directors of the Company is concerned or interested in passing of the resolution.
