Divid[illegible]

Your [illegible] not recommend [illegible] dividend on Equity shares for the year ended [illegible] taking into account the [illegible] Company

Operations

The year under review was a very difficult one with the sales volumes in major products including Tubes, Labels, Cups and laminated were dropping due to continued recessionary trends in the FMCG sector. The Company has faced severe competition in all its products throughout the year resulting in to reduced prices and lower realization. The Company has also not been able to service its term and equity liabilities due to inadequate cash flow for servicing the same. The Company also had to face various litigations which compounded the problems of the Company. However, despite the difficult times faced by the Company, the management of the Company is committed to revive its business and turning around the profitability.

New initiatives for revival and positive developments

The Company has embarked into a major restructuring exercise for revival of the Company's business/ fortune. The Company aims to achieve this by changing and revising its existing marketing strategies, manufacturing new value added extrusion coating products, thrust on exports etc. The Company has established a subsidiary company in China through which it intends to export its products. The Company is in receipt of large long term contracts from FMCG companies of repute and the production is being carried out regularly and the orders are being fulfilled as per the targets. The Company has submitted a business restructure plan to the banks/financial Institutions and the negotiations for the restructure of the debts of the Company are progressing with the banks/financial institutions.

Your directors request you to note that the petition filed by HPEIF Ltd. against the Company and others has been dismissed by the Company Law Board and CLB has also vacated all the interim orders passed by it under the said petition. As a results the stay on the meeting of the Board of Directors and its Committee thereof has been vacated. The Company could not hold any meeting of the Board or its committee thereof since 15th November, 2002 due to the stay. The annual accounts of the Company could also not be considered and approved. As a result of this the AGM of the Company could also not be held and has been delayed.

Your directors hope that the stock prices of the Company which has taken a severe beating due to the above reasons will improve with the revival in the capital markets conditions and in view of the new initiatives for revival of the operations undertaken by the management.
