DIVIDEND

The industry is passing through recession and due to paucity of earnings the Directors express their inability to declare any dividend.

PRODUCTION AND PERFORMANCE

The plant for the manufacture of H-Acid has started producing CPC crude after conversion. The production quality has also stabilized and the plant was running at decent capacity utilization looking to the overall depression in the market.

MARKET

The market for pigment has picked up from the last year. The prices, which dipped due to heavy recessionary tendencies in the market were more than compensated by the enhanced production and better quality of offering from the Company. The Company sees a good future in the pigments and the pigments and the Company sees enhanced profitability in the coming year.

EXPORTS

The total exports were Rs. 444.50 Lacs. The exports have gradually picked up and will continue to do so in future.

RESEARCH AND DEVELOPMENT

The Company had developed two products during the last year. However only one product was accepted in sustained way in the market. However, the quality of pigment took a quantum leap and translated in terms of higher export growth in the pigment field.

FUTURE OUT LOOK

The export market looks more encouraging to the Company than the local market. The products of the Company are very well accepted throughout the World and we foresee a decent growth in future.

LISTING

The Company's Equity Capital continued to be listed on the Mumbai stock Exchanges. The company has paid annual listing fees.

The Company's Shares have been demated and allotted the ISIN: INE FO 1017 with the National Security Depositors Ltd. and with Central Depository Services (India) Ltd. and appointed M/s Adroit Corporate Services Pvt. Ltd. RTA for Electronic Connectivity.
