SURYA ROSHNI LIMITED

MANAGEMENT DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS

PROFILE

Surya Roshni Limited was incorporated on 17th October, 1973 under the name 'Prakash Tubes Limited'. The present name came into existence vide Registrar of Companies (NCT Delhi and Haryana) letter dated 14.12.1990. The company began its journey in the Steel Tubes Industry. It then diversified into manufacture of Lighting products in 1984. The 1990s saw the company implement major expansion and backward integration programs. This resulted not only in the timely availability of good quality raw material but also proved to be immensely cost effective. The backward integration strategy, apart from making Surya a highly competitive and prominent brand in the market, also made Surya Roshni Limited the only company in the Lighting industry to be fully backward integrated. Today, your company is the leader in Steel Tubes / Pipes market and the second largest Lighting company in India.

Quality has always been the driving force at Surya. Your company succeeded in bench-marking quality and innovation standards by achieving the ISO 9002 in the year 1999. During the year under review, the company was awarded ISO-14001 and OHSAS-18001 certifications related to Environment and Safety respectively. The company continues to be committed towards making quality products, ensuring human as well as environment safety and bringing value addition to the investments of the shareholders. Surya, standing poised towards achieving new heights, is on its way to becoming one of the leading brands globally.

INDUSTRY STRUCTURE AND DEVELOPMENT

During the year under review, the Lighting Industry witnessed a recession and there was a large gap between supply and demand, resulting into a major shortfall in the production as well as turnover.

The following would impact the market in the coming years :

- Small Scale Industry in GLS
- Cheap brands of tube lights in the market introduced recently
- The increasing cost of electricity resulting into opting for low wattage items such as CFL/EL by the customers
- Cut-throat competition in the market due to presence of numerous players

The Steel Tubes industry too witnessed a downward trend during the year under review. Lack of demand resulted in a huge over supply situation. The future is likely to see only those companies successful, which have their products priced competitively. All possible efforts are being made by your company to reduce costs without compromising on the quality of the product.

SWOT ANALYSIS

Strengths :

- Well focused vision of the Management
- A highly skilled, dedicated and motivated workforce
- State-of-the-art technology
- Complete backward integration
- High quality of products
- People driven organisation with highly innovative Human Resource Planning
- Nation-wide marketing network
- Well defined and strictly implemented internal control system

Weaknesses :

- Low margin of profit on the products
- No concrete strategy to cope with external market forces
- Under utilisation of production capacity due to demand constraints

Opportunities :

- Potential increase in demand of energy efficient products
- Good potential in exports due to low cost and world standard quality products
- Increase in demand of regular lighting products with a general improvement in the power condition in urban as well as rural sectors
- Potential increase in government spending on infrastructure development and resulting increase in the demand for both lighting products as well as steel pipes

Threats :

- Tough competition from multi-national companies
- Cheap branded/unbranded and spurious products from the unorganised sector
- Duplicacy of branded products by unorganised sectors
- Several plants, presently in shut-down position, with idle capacity for similar products
- General recessionary trend in industrial sector as a whole and particularly in lighting industry
- Introduction of new energy efficient and new inventions in the Lighting industry for which the company has not yet started the developments in full swing

SEGMENT-WISE PERFORMANCE :

The company is broadly divided into two main segments viz. Steel and Lighting.

A detailed note on the segment-wise performance is given at point no. 8. under the Notes on Accounts, forming a part of annual accounts of the company.

OUTLOOK

- The Government is giving continuous thrust on housing and infrastructure sector where Steel Tubes are used. The existing refineries are expanding their capacities and new refineries are coming into the scene. To save the transportation cost, the companies are planning to lay pipelines for transportation of oils and gases. The government spending on infrastructure development is also expected to increase the demand of pipes every year. With the cheaper availability of finance and tax incentives, it is expected that housing sector will get a major boost. In view of the same, the long term outlook of Steel Tubes industry remains positive.
- Proposals may be considered for merger/takeover of non-performing/sick units which are available at low cost, but have a potential for being turned into profitable units.

RISKS AND CONCERNS :

Technology obsolescence is an inherent business risk in a fast changing world and speed of change and adaptability is crucial for survival of business. At SURYA, the continuing modernisation process has enabled the company to do away with obsolete plants/processes and to emerge as one of the most modern plants in the lighting industry throughout the world.

During the prolonged international recessionary trend, the company too witnessed a slowdown. However, aggressive cost cutting and addition to the product mix to incorporate more value-added products, yielded a positive contribution, enabling the company to weather the recession. With the present strengths of the company, the management feels that it can now compete effectively both in terms of quality and price with similar products imported from various countries. With the assistance of world-renowned consultants, the company has made good progress towards its objective of becoming the world leader in lighting products. In dealing with the problems of severe over capacity and intense competition in the Lighting industry, the company is adding a new product range. Moreover, stress is being laid on boosting exports as well as institutional demands. At the same time, labour, time and money is also being geared towards making the various plant premises more and more eco friendly.

The Steel Tubes industry has also been witnessing a fast changing environment. The quality parameters of pipes used in the oil sector are becoming more stringent each day. Moreover, any failure of pipes after the supply to customers in the oil and gas sector attracts heavy penalties. The company is taking utmost care to ensure very high quality of products. During the year under review, the company took major steps towards upgradation of technology in order to ensure compliance of the quality norms.

INTERNAL CONTROL SYSTEM :

Surya has a proper and adequate system of internal control to ensure that all the assets are safe-guarded and protected against loss due to unauthorised use and that all the transactions are duly authorised, recorded and reported correctly. There is an Internal Audit department fully committed towards ensuring due compliance and propriety at all levels in the organisation by conducting audits at regular intervals. The department reports to the Audit Committee which, in turn reports its observations to the Board of Directors.

The E.R.P. (Enterprise Resource Planning) System, implemented recently, ensures transparency and provides meaningful and systematic information to the management at various levels. It has been designed to ensure that the financial and other records are reliable for preparing financial statements and other data and for maintaining accountability of the assets.

The company's Internal Control System sets forth the management's commitment to conduct business with highest ethical standards and in conformity with laws of the land. The said system further requires that the documents supporting all transactions clearly describe their true nature and that all transactions be properly reported and classified in the records.

FINANCIAL PERFORMANCE :

In spite of the prolonged recession, the company was able to maintain itself as a leader in the Steel Tubes industry and as a strong contender in the Lighting industry. Given under, are the financials of the company for the current as well as the previous year :
