Annual Report 2002-2003

AUDITORS REPORT

To,

The Shareholders of

M/S. THACKER AND COMPANY LTD.

We have audited the attached Balance Sheet of M/s. THACKER AND COMPANY LIMITED, as at 31st March, 2003 and also the Trading, Profit & Loss Account of the Company for the year ended on that date.

We have conducted our audit in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in India. These standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement. An audit includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amount and disclosures in the financial statements. An audit also includes assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall financial statement presentation. We believe that our audit provides a reasonable basis for our opinion.

- I. As required by the Manufacturing and other Companies (Auditor's Report) Order, 1988 issued by the Company Law Board in terms of Section 227 (4A) of the Companies Act, 1956, and on the basis of verification of such records as we considered appropriate and according to the information & explanations given to us during the course of Audit, we report as under:
 1. The Company has maintained records to show full particulars including quantitative details and situation of its fixed assets. The management has carried out the physical verification of the fixed assets during the year and no material discrepancies were noticed on such verification.
 2. None of the fixed assets have been revalued during the year.
 3. Physical verification has been conducted by the management in respect of stock in trade and in our opinion the frequency of the verification is reasonable.
 4. The procedure of physical verification of stock followed by the management is reasonable and adequate in relation to the size of the Company and the nature of its business.
 5. No material discrepancies have been noticed on such verification as compared to the book records.
 6. The valuation of these stocks is fair and proper and in accordance with the normally accepted accounting principles. There is no change in the basis of valuation of closing stock from the previous year.
 7. In our opinion and according to the information and explanations given to us, the rate of interest and other terms and conditions on which the company has taken loan from companies, firms and other parties required to be listed in the register maintained under section 301 and/or Section 370 (1 -B) of the Companies Act, 1956 are prima facie, not prejudicial to the interest of the Company.
 8. The Company has not granted any loan to companies, firms or other parties required to be listed in the Register maintained under Section 301 and/or Section 370 (1 -B) of the Companies Act, 1956.
 9. We are informed that the loans & advances in the nature of loans given by the company are repayable on demand alongwith interest thereon. The repayment of principal amount is being made by the parties as and when demanded by the Company. The parties are generally regular in the repayment of principal & interest.
 10. In our opinion and according to the information and explanations given to us, there are adequate internal control procedures commensurate with the size of the Company and the nature of its business for purchase of trading goods, Plant & Machinery, equipment and other assets & for the sale of goods.
 11. In our opinion and according to the information and explanations given to us, purchase of goods and materials and sales of goods, materials and services made in pursuance of contracts or arrangements entered in the register maintained under section 301 of the Companies Act, 1956 and aggregating during the year to Rs. 50,000/- or more in value in respect of each party have been made at price which are reasonable having regard to prevailing market prices for such goods or services or the prices at which transactions for similar goods or services have been made with the other parties.
