 - xiii) Words and expressions used and not defined in the Act but defined in the Depositories Act shall have the same meanings respectively assigned to them in the Act.

- b) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary or inconsistent contained in the Act or theses Articles, the Company shall be entitled to dematerialise its existing securities, rematerialize its securities held in the Depositories and / or offer its fresh securities in a dematerialised form pursuant to the Depositories Act, 1996 and the Rules made thereunder, if any.
- c) Either the Company or the investor may exercise an option to issue, deal or to hold the securities (including shares) with a Depository in electronic form and the certificates in respect thereof shall be dematerialised in which event the rights and obligations of the parties concerned and matters connected therewith or incidental thereof, shall be governed by the provisions of the Depositories Act, 1996 as amended from time to time or any statutory modification thereto or re-enactment thereof.
- d) i) Every person acquiring / subscribing to or holding securities of the Company shall have the option to receive security certificates or to hold the securities with a Depository. Such a person who is the beneficial owner of the securities can at any time opt out of a Depository, if permitted by the law, in respect of any security in the manner provided by the Depositories Act, 1996 and the Company shall, in the manner and within the time prescribed, issue to the beneficial owner the required certificates of securities.
 - ii) If a person opts to hold his security with a Depository, the Company shall intimate such Depository the details of allotment / holdings of the security, and on receipt of the information, the Depository shall enter in its record the name of the allottee / holder as the beneficial owner of the security.
- e) All securities of the Company held by a Depository shall be dematerialised and be in fungible form. Nothing contained in Sections 153, 187C and 372A of the Companies Act, 1956 shall apply to a Depository in respect of the securities held by it on behalf of the beneficial owners.
- f) i) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in the Act or these Articles, a Depository shall be deemed to be the registered owner for the purposes of effecting transfer of ownership of security on behalf of the beneficial owner.
 - ii) Save as otherwise provided in (a) above, the Depository as the registered owner of the securities shall not have any voting rights or any other rights in respect of the securities held by it.
 - iii) Every person holding securities of the Company and whose name is entered as the beneficial owner in the records of the Depository shall be deemed to be a member of the Company. The beneficial owner of securities shall be entitled to all the rights and benefits and be subject to all the liabilities in respect of his securities, which are held by a Depository.
- g) Except as ordered by a Court of competent jurisdiction or as required by law, the Company shall be entitled to treat the person whose name appears on the Register of Members as the holder of any share or as the beneficial owner of shares in the records of the Depository as the absolute owner thereof and accordingly the Company shall not be bound to recognize any benami trust or equitable or contingent or future or partial interest in any share or (unless otherwise expressly provided by these Articles) any right in respect of a share other than absolute right thereto on the part of any other person whether or not it shall have express or implied notice thereof.

Λ

TRITON VALVES LIMITED

- h) Upon receipt of certificates of securities on surrender by a person who has entered into an agreement with the Depository through a participant, the Company shall cancel such certificate and substitute in its records the name of the Depository as the registered owner in respect of the said securities and shall also inform the Depository accordingly.
- i) If the beneficial owner seeks to opt out of a Depository in respect of any security the beneficial owner shall inform the Depository accordingly. The Depository shall on receipt of information as above make appropriate entries in the records and shall inform the Company. The Company shall within thirty (30) days of the fulfillment of such conditions and on payment of such fees as may be specified by the regulations, issue the certificate of securities to the beneficial owner or the tranferee as the case may be.
- j) Notwithstanding anything in the Act, or these Articles to the contrary, where securities are held in a Depository, the records of the beneficial ownership may be served by such Depository on the Company by means of electronic mode or by delivery of floppies or discs.
- k) Except as specifically provided in these Articles, the provisions relating to joint holders of securities, calls, lien on securities, forfeiture, tranfer and transmission of securities shall be applicable to the securities held in Depository so far as they apply to securities held in physical form subject to the provisions of the Depositories Act, 1996.
- Notwithstanding anything in the Act, or these Articles where securities are dealt with by a Depository, the Company shall intimate the details thereof to the Depository immediately on allotment of such securities.
- m) The securities of the Company shall be numbered progressively according to their several denominations, provided however, that the provisions relating to progressive numbering shall not apply to the securities of the Company which are dematerialised or may be dematerialised in future or issued in future in dematerialised form, except in the manner herein mentioned. No securities shall be subdivided. Every forfeited or surrendered security held in material form shall continue to bear the number by which the same was originally distinguished.
