EXPLANATORY STATEMENT PURSUANT TO SECTION 173(2) OF THE COMPANIES ACT, 1956Item 7

Section 309 of the Companies Act, 1956 ("the Act") provides that a company, with the approval of its shareholders by way of special resolution, can pay remuneration by way of commission to a director who is neither in whole-time employment of the Company nor a Managing Director.

Pursuant to the listing requirements of the Stock Exchanges, your Company at present is having five Independent Directors on its Board who are persons of eminence and bring a wide range of expertise and rich experience to the Board. Besides their participation in the Board and committee meetings where they are members, the Company is substantially benefiting by their professional knowledge, managerial expertise and mature advice from time to time. Considering the valuable services being rendered by the Independent Directors, the Board of Directors has approved, subject to the approval of the members, to remunerate all Independent Directors collectively by way of commission not exceeding 1% per annum of the net profit of the Company computed in accordance with the provisions of Section 198, 349, 350 and other relevant provisions of the Act, subject to a ceiling of Rs.100 lacs per annum, for a period of five years commencing from the financial year 2008-09.

All Independent Directors of the Company may be deemed to be concerned or interested in the resolution.

The Board recommends the resolution set forth in Item 7 for approval of the members.
