DIVIDEND

OPERATIONS - MARKETING FOCUS

The ice-cream market has been slowly picked up after de-reservation of the sector in 1997. Per capita consumption of ice creams in India is one of the lowest at around 150-200ml per annum and ice cream penetration at all India level is estimated to be 15%. This provides ample growth opportunities in the market. The ice-cream industry in India has been witnessing a flurry of activities during the last few years. Entry of major competitor with a low price strategy as well as introduction of several regional brands have increased the level of competition and also expanded the market size.

The focus at Vadilal has been to eliminate and minimise the price & availability barriers in order to increase the consumption of products. As far as product availability is concerned, Vadilal has deep penetration level in Western Region (like, Gujarat and Rajasthan) and some parts of Northern Region (like U.P., Uttaranchal, Delhi, Haryana). In other States where there were ample opportunities to increase penetration like West Bengal, Bihar, Jharkhand, Orissa, Punjab, Chandigarh, the focus was to improve the distribution network by appointing new C&F Agents, Distributors and Dealers as well as by making proper investments in respective territories for providing infrastructure.

Vadilal is adopting a consumer-oriented strategy as far as the price factor is concerned, wherein the priority was on passing more and more benefits to the ultimate consumers. All the benefits accruing out of the economies of scale (in procurement and production) were passed on to the consumer in the form of value for money offers like "Buy One Get One Free". Here too, the focus was mainly on take-away packs, which in a way has changed the consumption pattern amongst consumers. The consumption pattern has shown a shift from impulse to take-away packs, which triggered off a tremendous growth in the take-away packs. In order to revive the impulse category also, Vadilal introduced similar offers on Cups and Candies and the results were the same.

The overall broad strategy of increasing the consumption was supported by appropriate promotion and market support. The selection of media and the communication strategy was done with an objective of achieving the broad objective of achieving growth in the growing market.
