With the introduction of low range Laptops in the market, even a sizeable segment of computer users have been shifting their choice to Laptops instead of Personal Computers. However, the loss of high segment consumers are well adjusted by the growing awareness, increased penetration and demand of Personal Computers in rural and semi-urban market, which has a vast potential and appetite ensuring the growing demand of Personal Computers in time to come.

Your Company has also plans of introducing high quality technically advanced gadgets in the Company's product basket once it meets the working capital requirement to start its operations in full capacity, which will expedite its revival scheme. Your Company, however, is confident that with the launch of high quality, competitively priced products, we will be able to expand our market share.
