22nd Annual Report 2004 - 2005MANAGEMENT DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS REPORT*(a) Industry Structure & Developments:

The Non Banking Financial Services Industry (NBFC) has a promising future. It was a satisfactory year for your Company. Amidst a challenging business environment, your Company has reported satisfactory volumes but a modest decline in the pre-tax profits. In the recent years, NBFC's are witnessing strong competition in their traditional areas of retail lending from Banks and financial institutions. Banks, which have innate advantage of lower cost of funds, are taking an increasing share in retail financing and providing strong competition to NBFC's.

In this scenario, NBFC's are now under pressure to cut costs and to develop a focused marketing approach on selected customer segments by offering more personalized services. The entry of strong NBFC's in insurance and banking has been the major development in this sector.

(b) Opportunities & Threats:

Indian Economy provides excellent growth opportunities as the increased thrust to power, road, ports, telecom and other urban infrastructure projects will create a positive environment for the Financial Services Industry in India. Further, growth of service sector also presents new opportunities for Financial Services Industry in India.

(c) Segment-wise Performance:

The company's main business is purchase of shares and sale of shares and all the activities of the company are related to its main business. As such there is no separate reportable segments.

(d) Outlook:

The Company continues to explore the possibilities of expansion and will make the necessary investments when attractive opportunities arise.

(e) Risks and Concerns:

The company's exposed to the market risk and credit risk. It is further exposed to risk of economic cycle. The company manages these risks by remaining very conservative and following other risk management practices.

(f) Internal Control Systems & their Adequacy:

The Company's operating and business control procedures have been framed in order that they ensure efficient use of resources and comply with the procedures and regulatory requirements. The Company has a proper and adequate system of internal controls to ensure that all assets are safeguarded and protected against loss from unauthorized use or disposition and that transactions are authorized, recorded and reported correctly.

(g) Discussions on Financial Performance with respect to Operational Performance:

The turnover during the year decreased to Rs. 20795.45 Lacs from Rs. 25659.14 Lacs in the previous year. The Company earned profit on sale of investment aggregating to Rs. 648.12 Lacs as against a Profit of Rs. 1380.13 Lacs in the previous year. The provision for taxation during the year to be Rs. 216/-.

(h) Human Resource Development:

The Company believes that the human resources are vital in giving the company a Competitive edge in the current business environment. The Company's philosophy is to provide congenial work environment, performance oriented work culture, knowledge acquisition/ dissemination, creativity and responsibility. As in the past, the Company enjoyed cordial relations with the employees at all levels.

Winro Commercial (India) LimitedCORPORATE GOVERNANCE REPORT*(A) Company's Philosophy on Code of Corporate Governance
