EXPLANATORY STATEMENT UNDER SECTION 173(2) OF THE COMPANIES ACT, 1956

ltem No. 6

The consent of the company was accorded to the Board of Directors by the shareholders in the meeting dated 16th June, 2003 for borrowing from time to time all such sums of money upto a limit of Rs. 30 crores (Rupees thirty crores) (apart from temporary loans obtained or to be obtained from Company's Bankers in the ordinary course of business) over and above the agrregate of the paid up capital of the Company and its free reserves.

The company has planned major expansion to double its manufacturing capacity, power co-generation and caustic soda recovery effluent treatment plant. The present borrowing limit of Rs.30 crores over and above the aggregate of the paid up capital of the Company and its free reserves is, therefore, considered inadequate. The consent of the Company in General Meeting under Section 293(1)(d) of the Companies Act, 1956, is, therefore, being sought for increasing the borrowing limit upto Rs.80 crores (Rupees eighty crores) over and above the aggregate of the paid up capital of the Company and its free reserves.

Hence, the resolution at item no. 6 of the notice is recommended for your approval.

None of the Directors of the Company is, in any way, concerned or interested in this resolution.

Item No. 7

To meet the capital expenditure requirements of the proposed expansion, the Company proposes to obtain in the coming years financial assistance from Financial Institution(s)/Banks/Other lender(s) by way of loans/debentures/ bonds/other instruments and also in course of working of the Company, the bank(s) might be approached for enhanced working capital limits as set out in the resolution. The borrowings of the Company are required to be secured by suitable mortgages and/or charges and/or hypothecations on all or any of the existing and/or future movable or immovable properties of the Company in such form, manner and ranking as may be determined by the Board of Directors of the Company in consultation with the lender(s).

Such mortgage and/or charge and/or hypothecation of the Company's movable and/or immovable properties in favour of the lender(s) may be regarded as disposal of the undertaking(s) of the Company or a substantial part thereof, in terms of section 293(1)(a) of the Companies Act, 1956.

Section 293(1)(a) of the Companies Act, 1956, provides inter-alia that the Board of Directors of the Company, shall not, without the consent of the Company in the General Meeting sell, lease or otherwise dispose of the whole or substantially the whole, of the undertaking of the Company or where the Company owns more than one undertaking, of the whole, or substantially whole, of any such undertaking.

Hence, the resolution at item No. 7 of the notice is recommended for your approval.

It is pertinent to mention that the existing borrowings with future borrowings from time to time would be within the limits of Rs. 80 crores as laid down by the shareholders under Section 293(1)(d) of the Companies Act, 1956.

None of the Directors of the Company is, in any way, concerned or interested in this resolution.

Item No.8, 9 and 10

The authorised capital of the Company consists of 40,00,000 Equity shares of Rs.10/- each and 3,00,000 preference shares of Rs.10/- each aggregating to Rs.7 crores. The issued and subscribed capital of the Company consists 38,65,500 Equity shares of Rs.10/- each. In order to fulfill the company contribution required for the financing of the proposed expansion, it has been thought fit to increase the authorised capital which shall facilitate for issue of equity shares for the purpose.

Therefore, resolution under section 94 of the Companies Act, 1956 and other applicable provisions is placed before you for approval as an Ordinary Resolution.

The resolutions at item no. 9 & 10 are the consequential amendment in the Memorandum and Articles of Association to be effective on approval of increase of authorised capital at item no. 8. The amendment in the Articles can be carried out by way of special resolution in the terms of Section 31 of the Companies Act, 1956.
